Sally Mason*President, The University of Iowa

Sally Mason became the 20th President of the University of Iowa on August 1, 2007. Trained as a cell developmental biologist, she also holds a full professorship in the Department of Biology in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

At Iowa, President Mason has spearheaded a sustainable university initiative, making sustainability a central priority of all aspects of the university enterprise. Currently, she is overseeing campus rebuilding in the wake of the historic 2008 flooding, especially the renewal of an arts campus for the 21st century. Under President Mason's leadership, the UI has successfully met the country's recent economic challenges through careful planning, strategic prioritization, and increased efficiency. Other major accomplishments during President Mason's tenure have been a student success initiative that has led to increased enrollment and student retention, as well as an expansion of partnership agreements with Iowa's community colleges in order to offer UI degrees to students throughout the state through on-site and distance learning programs. President Mason successfully advocated for a tuition freeze for resident undergraduate students for the 2013–2014 academic year, the first tuition freeze in thirty years.

The daughter of an immigrant father and the first child in her family to attend college, President Mason received her B.A. in zoology from the University of Kentucky in 1972, her M.S. from Purdue University in 1974, and her Ph.D. in cellular, molecular, and developmental biology from the University of Arizona in 1978. She spent two postdoctoral research years at Indiana University before joining the molecular biosciences faculty at the University of Kansas in 1981, where she received awards for outstanding undergraduate advising and teaching and was awarded a prestigious Kemper Teaching Fellowship. After stints as acting chair of the Department of Physiology and Cell Biology and associate dean in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, in 1995 she won appointment as the dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, the largest academic unit on the KU campus. President Mason served as provost of Purdue University from 2001–2007, where she was responsible for planning, managing, and reviewing all academic programs at Purdue's West Lafayette campus and four affiliated branch campuses throughout Indiana.

President Mason is the author of many scientific papers and has obtained a number of research grants from the National Science Foundation, the National Institutes of Health, the Wesley Research Foundation, and the Lilly Endowment. Her research interests have focused on the developmental biology, genetics, and biochemistry of pigment cells and pigments in the skin of vertebrates, and she served as president of the PanAmerican Society for Pigment Cell Research. Since 2006, President Mason has been appointed by the President of the United States to three terms on the National Medal of Science President's Committee, including a term as chair. She has also served as chair of the Advisory Committee to the National Science Foundation (NSF) Directorate for Education and Human Resources (EHR) and chair of the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS) review panel of the NSF Science and Technology Centers Program.

President Mason has held many leadership positions in higher education and national organizations, including president of the Council of Colleges of Arts and Sciences; member of the board of directors of the American Council on Education (ACE); member of the executive committee of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC); chair of the Iowa Coordinating Council for Post-High School Education (ICCPHSE); and co-chair of the Task Force on National Energy Policy and Midwestern Competitiveness of the Chicago Council on Global Affairs.

Currently, President Mason serves as chair of the Board of Directors Executive Committee of the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU); member of the Board of Trustees of the Universities Research Association; member of the Board of Directors of Campus Compact, the national coalition of college and university presidents committed to fulfilling the civic purposes of higher education; chair of the Big Ten Council of Presidents and Chancellors; member of the Washington Center Council of Presidents; and member of the board of trustees of the Herbert Hoover Presidential Library Association.

President Mason is married to Ken Mason, an educator and textbook author who teaches biology at the University of Iowa.

"Welcome to a new season of Iowa football! I'm very excited to join you for another year of cheering the Iowa black and gold on to success in 2013."

Hawkeye dedication and hard work in the classroom and in the stadium exemplify the University of Iowa spirit. Last year, Iowa had fifteen players earn academic all-Big Ten honors, and three team members earned district academic All-America honors. We are also proud that the Hawkeyes have reached a Graduation Success Rate of 82 percent, which is five points higher than the average for all Iowa student-athletes and seventeen points higher than the national average for student-athletes."

I thank Coach Kirk Ferentz—the dean of Big Ten coaches—and the entire coaching and athletic staff for their excellent work with our players. The coaches' leadership and teaching, combined with the dedication and talent of our team members, have led the Hawkeyes to impressive success. We could not be more proud of the talented student-athletes who have performed so well under the leadership of a great coach and tremendous coaching staff."

I know that Hawkeye fans create a wonderful atmosphere here in Iowa City on football Saturdays, and loyal season ticket holders from all 99 Iowa counties help generate a special brand of excitement that all fans and visitors enjoy. You certainly seem to help the Hawkeyes on the field, too—Iowa is 57-17 in Kinnick Stadium in the last eleven seasons. I am proud to be a Hawkeye, and I am pleased to welcome you to another year of great Iowa football action!"

Sally Mason

Gary Barta
Director of Athletics

Now in his eighth year as director of athletics at the University of Iowa, Gary Barta continues to provide the UI's more than 600 student-athletes, in addition to more than 225 coaches, administrators and support staff, the strong leadership and strategic vision that is the foundation for the Hawkeyes' success both today and in the future.

Barta often notes, "Hope is not a strategy," and evidence of his commitment to planning and execution is his second strategic plan for the UI Athletics Department. The latest "road map" addresses the next five years for the Hawkeyes and is built on the same core tenets contained in the first: Win. Graduate. Do it right.

The Hawkeyes are coming off a 2012-13 athletics year that saw eight programs participate in national championship competition, a record-setting year in terms of graduation rates – 77 percent, and steady progress in terms of facility improvements, highlighted by the opening of the new indoor practice facility for the UI's football program and the Hoak Family Golf Complex at Finkbine Golf Course, home of the Hawkeyes' men's and women's golf programs.

Under Barta's direction, the UI will continue to put into place the infrastructure that will provide the foundation for competitive success. The 2012-13 basketball season provides an outstanding example of the impact state-of-the-art facilities can have on a program. Boosted by a new practice facility and an enhanced strength and conditioning facility – two pieces of Barta's first strategic plan for the UI – Fran McCaffery's Iowa men's basketball team won 25 games and advanced to the championship game of the 2013 National Invitation Tournament. Lisa Bluder's Iowa women's basketball team earned its sixth consecutive invitation to the NCAA Tournament.

Another example of investments made under Barta's direction that have helped Iowa turn the corner competitively is the UI men's golf program. Barta increased his commitment to the sport when he hired native Iowan Mark Hankins, who had a vision for the program that included a new practice facility. Barta, Hankins and the Hawkeyes celebrated the opening of the new $6 million Hoak Family Golf Complex in February, just three months before Hankins' nationally ranked squad made its fifth straight appearance in the national regional championships. The Hawkeyes have advanced to the NCAA Championships in three of the last five seasons.

Women's basketball and men's golf are two of the eight UI programs that participated in national championship competition in 2012-13. At the top of the list was Tom Brands' wrestling program, which crowned one national champion, had four wrestlers earn All-America honors, and finished fourth nationally at the end of a season that included a Big Ten Conference Dual Meet championship.

JD Reive's men's gymnastics team had three individuals earn All-America honors after finishing fifth at the national meet. Larissa Libby's women's gymnastics program advanced to NCAA regional competition for the sixth straight season.

The Iowa field hockey program under the direction of Tracy Greisbaum advanced to its sixth NCAA Tournament over the last nine years and 22nd in school history – a total that ranks No. 1 among the Hawkeyes' Big Ten Conference peers. Two Hawkeyes were named All-Americans.

Iowa's 200 and 400 medley relay teams and backstroke Grant Betulius earned All-America honors while leading Marc Long's men's swimming and diving team to a 32nd place at the national championship. Larry Wieczorek's UI track and field program crowned eight All-Americans en route to placing 35th at the national outdoor championship.

Interest in the Hawkeyes continues to soar. Sellouts for home games of the football team at historic Kinnick Stadium and a waiting list for access to the premium seating areas inside the Paul W. Brechler Press Box are the norm. So, too, is Iowa leading the country in attendance at home wrestling events – Iowa averaged just under 9,000 fans per home dual match in 2012-13 – and being ranked among the nation's Top 20 in attendance in women's basketball.

Success on the court has also resulted in spinning turnstiles for home games of the UI men's basketball team. The Hawkeyes' run to New York City's Madison Square Garden and the NIT championship game included a pair of sold out games on Mediacom Court in 15,400-seat Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Those two sellouts, paired with three regular season sellouts, helped to push Iowa's total average per game to 13,625, an improvement of more than 1,700 per game that has pushed the Hawkeyes into the nation's Top 25 in per game attendance.

Under Barta's leadership, Iowa has also embraced new technologies and that, too, has paid dividends: Iowa ranks among the nation's Top 10 in Facebook "friends" and Twitter "followers." The UI also delivers Hawk Talk Daily, a daily e-newsletter, and Hawk Talk Monthly, a monthly e-magazine, to more than 70,000 friends of the UI and fans of the Hawkeyes to complement the news, information, video and photography available on hawkeyesports.com, the official world wide web site of the Iowa Hawkeyes and the UI's anchor in the digital world.

Academically, Iowa continues to achieve at a pace that sets the bar across the state and competes favorably with its peers in the Big Ten Conference. UI student-athletes set new records for academic achievement, according to data released by the NCAA in October 2012, as part of its annual report on the work in the classroom by student-athletes across the country.

Student-athletes that entered the UI in the fall of 2005 graduated at a rate of 77 percent, an all-time record for the Hawkeyes. That mark – which uses the federal government benchmark for graduation success – is three points better than the 2011 report when Iowa tied the previous school record of 74 percent set first in 1994-95. It is also six points better than the UI student body and 12 points better than that achieved all by student-athletes nationally.

The UI also set a new record by posting a score of 87 percent in the NCAA's "Graduation Success Rate" or GSR, one point better than what was posted the previous year. It marked the seventh time in the eight years of the GSR's existence that Iowa's student-athletes scored 80 percent or better.

The GSR's for football (82), men's basketball (89), and women's basketball (100) all bested the national averages in their sport: 68, 65, and 86, respectively.

The NCAA's Academic Progress Rate report for 2012-13 revealed that for the fourth consecutive year all of Iowa's 24 sports programs were comfortably above the 930 threshold that signals a red flag for the NCAA. The highlights of Iowa's report include APR's for 18 of Iowa's programs that were better than the national average in that sport, including football, men's basketball and wrestling. The APR for Iowa's football program – 961 – was an all-time best.

As noted, Barta has been the driving force behind substantial investments in the facilities used by Iowa's more than 650 talented male and female student-athletes. When the Iowa football program moves into its new $54 million operations center in late summer 2014, the UI will have completed more than $220 million of construction and renovation work over the previous eight years.

That list of projects includes a $47 million facelift and addition to Iowa's award-winning Carver-Hawkeye Arena, a project that directly impacted 23 of Iowa's 24 sports programs, two phases of improvements to the facilities used daily by Iowa's football program – construction of a new indoor practice facility and renovation of the Kenyon Outdoor Practice facility in Phase I, and construction of a state-of-the-art operations center in Phase II, a $9 million investment in scoreboards, ribbon boards, and video walls at historic Kinnick Stadium, construction of the aforementioned $6 million Hoak Family Golf Complex at Iowa's award-winning Finkbine Golf Course, turf replacement at Grant Field, the home of Iowa's nationally ranked field hockey program, resurfacing of the courts at the Klotz Tennis Center, the home of Iowa's men's and women's tennis programs, and the construction of a new indoor turf facility.

On the horizon for Barta, from a facilities perspective, is the planning and construction of the "Hawkeye Campus." Located on the western edge of the UI campus, immediately west of Finkbine Golf Course and adjacent to the UI's Athletics Hall of Fame, the practice and competition sites for Iowa's soccer and field hockey programs, and the UI Sports Medicine Clinic, and near the UI's Ashton Cross Country Course, the Hawkeye Campus is envisioned to be the new home for Iowa's track and field, softball, and baseball programs.

Another favorite saying of Barta's is, "Vision without resources is irrelevant." Over the course of his career he has been directly involved in raising hundreds of millions of dollars in support of intercollegiate athletics. This task has remained a primary focus during his tenure at Iowa, where private support for the Hawkeyes continues to be a critical piece to Iowa's ability to remain one of a handful of NCAA Division I intercollegiate athletics programs that are 100 percent self-sustaining financially.

Under Barta's leadership -- and thanks to a talented athletics development staff - the UI has seen year-over-year improvement in annual giving in spite of the difficult economic environment. In addition, under Barta's direction, the UI generated more than $20 million of philanthropic and corporate sponsorship support for the revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena and more than $30 million of support for phases I and II of the projects designed to position Iowa's football program for success in the next decade.

The UI also generated the $2 million in private support necessary to fully fund the Hawkeyes' new practice facility for its men's and women's golf programs. Philanthropic support will also play a critical role in the development of the Hawkeye Campus.

Barta's involvement in the UI campus and the greater Iowa City communities extends far beyond his position as director of the UI's intercollegiate athletics programs. He is a member of the President's Cabinet, comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders that provide counsel to UI President Sally Mason. That group was instrumental in the UI's response to record-setting flooding that besieged the campus and the Iowa City and Coralville community in June 2008.

Barta also represents the UI and the Hawkeyes at the conference and national level. During his first six years at the UI, he has participated in the creation and implementation of the Big Ten Network, the expansion of the Big Ten Conference and realignment of athletics conferences nationally, and the Big Ten's postseason bowl game agreements that were successfully implemented in 2010.

Nationally, Barta remains active in the Division IA Athletics Directors Association, the National Association of College Directors of Athletics, and currently serves on the NCAA Football Committee Board of Directors.

Barta is also involved in a variety of community groups, included the United Way of Johnson County and Partnership for Alcohol Safety, a joint effort between UI campus leaders and the city of Iowa City.

Barta often suggests to his staff that "Hope is not a strategy," which is why he is currently overseeing a comprehensive review of the strategic plan for the UI Athletics Department and has worked with the UI's leadership on a long-term financial plan.

As the director of athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different UW coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fund-raising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state fund.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several UW athletics facilities, including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private support received by UW, Barta also managed the department's external relations division, a task that included corporate sponsorship and radio contracts.

His responsibilities at Washington expanded over time to include hiring of coaching and administrative staff, and the day-to-day oversight of several Huskie sport teams.

The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa and director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University.

Barta earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from NDSU in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA National Championship in 1983, 1985 and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (15) and a daughter, Madison (13). He was born Sept. 4, 1963, in Minneapolis.

Kirk Ferentz
Head Football Coach
15th Year at Iowa

Kirk Ferentz is in his 15th season as head football coach at the University of Iowa. His tenure as Iowa's head football coach trails only Hayden Fry, who led the Hawkeyes for 20 seasons (1979-98). Ferentz is the dean of Big Ten Conference football coaches. He is tied for third in coaching longevity among BCS schools and tied for fifth among all Division I head coaches.

Following the 2009 campaign Ferentz was named Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third time in eight years. He joins the select company of Hayden Fry, Joe Paterno and Bo Schembechler in winning the prestigious award at least three times. He was named Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2002 and 2004. He was also named national Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and Walter Camp Foundation in 2002. Ferentz was named a 2009 Regional Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association as well. Ferentz had guided Iowa to 10 bowl appearances in 14 seasons. His six bowl victories put him in a tie for third all-time among Big Ten coaches.

Under Ferentz, the Hawkeyes have put together the greatest run in school history. The Hawkeyes won 11 games in 2002 and 2009 and 10 games in 2003 and 2004. With a 7-5 record in 2005, Iowa posted a four-year mark (2002-05) of 38-12, the best in school history. In addition, Iowa's 25 Big Ten wins were the most ever by a Hawkeye team in a four-year span. No other Big Ten team won more league games over that four-year period. He is 100-74 (.575) in his 14 years as Iowa's head coach.

Ferentz and his staff have led the Hawkeyes to bowl eligible status in 11 of the last 12 seasons. The Hawkeyes appeared in six straight bowl games between 2001 and 2006, the second longest bowl streak in school history (Iowa appeared in eight straight bowl games from 1981-88). Iowa's streak under Ferentz included a string of four straight January bowls from 2002-05. Iowa was just one of eight schools in the nation to appear in six January bowl games between 2002-09. The Hawkeyes have placed in the Big Ten's first division in 10 of the last 12 seasons.

The Hawkeyes are 57-17 (.770) in Kinnick Stadium since the start of the 2002 season, winning 25 of their last 33 home games. That mark includes a school-record 22-game winning streak (2002-05), which ended in an overtime loss. Iowa sold out 36 straight home games during that time and has sold out 62 of its last 65 games.

The Hawkeyes posted a 4-8 overall record in 2012. Iowa lost four games by three points or less, including two games in which the opponent won on a field goal on the final play. Iowa was the only team in the nation to have six regular season games decided by three points or less. Three of Iowa's wins came over teams that advanced to postseason play. Senior DB Micah Hyde earned the Tatum-Woodson Defensive Back of the Year Award in the Big Ten and was selected by Green Bay in the 2013 NFL Draft.

Iowa posted a 7-6 mark in 2011 (4-4 in Big Ten). WR Marvin McNutt, Jr., was named the league's top receiver. McNutt and OL Riley Reiff were unanimous first-team all-Big Ten selections. McNutt set both single season and career receiving records, while QB James Vandenberg passed for over 3,000 yards. For the third straight year, six Hawkeyes were selected in the NFL Draft. Reiff became Iowa's third first round selection in the last three years.

The 2010 Hawkeyes were ranked virtually the entire season. Iowa capped the season on a high note with a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the Insight Bowl. The win gave the Hawkeyes an 8-5 season record (4-4 Big Ten, fourth place).

Four Hawkeyes were named to the first all-Big Ten team, while seven others were named second team. DE Adrian Clayborn was a finalist for the Lombardi and Ted Hendricks awards, punter Ryan Donahue was a finalist for the Ray Guy Punter of the Year Award and QB Ricky Stanzi was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Senior Quarterback of the Year Award. Six Hawkeyes were selected in the 2011 NFL Draft.

The 2009 Hawkeyes (11-2) won their first nine games (a school record) while ranking as high as fourth in the BCS rankings. The loss of starting QB Ricky Stanzi in the 10th game was a key factor in Iowa losing two straight games before winning its regular season finale and the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl. Iowa finished in a tie for second (6-2) in the Big Ten, falling to Ohio State on the road in overtime in what was, essentially, the Big Ten title game.

Seven Hawkeyes earned first team all-Big Ten honors in 2009, including OL Bryan Bulaga, who was named league Offensive Lineman of the Year. Six Hawkeyes were selected in the 2010 NFL Draft.

The 2008 Hawkeyes caught fire in the second half of the season by winning six of their final seven games. Iowa finished the season with a 9-4 record (5-3 in the Big Ten), with the losses coming by a total of 12 points. A win over previously undefeated and third-ranked Penn State (24-23) was the biggest highlight of the successful stretch run. The icing on the cake was a convincing 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl at Tampa, Fla. Iowa finished 20th in both the AP and coaches final polls.

Four Hawkeyes made the 2008 first all-Big Ten team, with two gaining considerable individual honors. RB Shonn Greene won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. He was also the winner of the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football, emblematic of the league's most valuable player. He was named the Big Ten's offensive Player of the Year by both league coaches and media. Greene was also the MVP of the Outback Bowl. DT Mitch King was named the league's Defensive Lineman of the Year while earning all-league first team honors for the second straight year.

Iowa's 6-6 record in 2007 included a 4-4 mark in Big Ten play. Iowa climbed as high as 12th in the 2006 polls while winning five of its first six games. Injuries and inopportune mistakes played a role as the Hawkeyes struggled for consistency during the second half of the season. Still, a 24-21 loss to 15th-ranked Wisconsin and a two-point loss to 16th-ranked Texas in the Alamo Bowl showed Iowa's toughness.

Ferentz led Iowa to a third place Big Ten finish in 2005. An overtime loss to Michigan and a last-minute, one point loss at Northwestern is all that kept the Hawkeyes out of contention for a third Big Ten title in four years. Iowa returned to the Outback Bowl, its fourth straight January bowl game.

Ferentz led the 2004 Hawkeyes to their second Big Ten title in three years, being named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the second time. A victory in the 2005 Capital One Bowl (30-25 over defending national champion LSU) capped off a third straight appearance in a January bowl game as Iowa completed a 10-2 overall season (7-1 in the Big Ten).

Iowa put the topping on the 2003 and 2004 seasons by beating favored SEC teams in New Year's Day bowl games. The Hawkeyes ended the 2002, 2003 and 2004 seasons with an eighth place ranking in the final polls. On a national scale, Iowa's record over that three-year span ranked eighth best in the nation.

The 2003 Hawkeyes were the only Big Ten team to beat league champion Michigan (30-27). Five Iowa players were named to the 2003 first all-Big Ten team and two were named first team all-America. OL Robert Gallery was named winner of the 2003 Outland Trophy, which goes to the nation's top collegiate interior lineman. Iowa put the topping on the 2003 season by beating a favored Florida team (37-17) in the Outback Bowl on New Year's Day.

Iowa's 2002 team was probably the most decorated in school history.

Ferentz was named 2002 Associated Press and The Walter Camp Football Foundation's Coach of the Year in college football. He was also named Big Ten Coach of the Year in a season that saw his team climb as high as third in the national rankings.

Ferentz led the 2002 Hawkeyes to their first Big Ten title since 1990 and the most wins (11) in school history. Iowa posted impressive road wins at Penn State and Michigan on its way to the school's first undefeated Big Ten campaign since 1922. The win over Michigan was the most convincing by a Wolverine opponent, in Ann Arbor, since 1967. Iowa also played in the BCS's FedEx Orange Bowl for the first time, having a nine-game winning streak snapped by Southern California.

Winning three of its final four games in 2001, Iowa earned an invitation to the Sylvania Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, Texas, where the Hawkeyes defeated Texas Tech 19-16 in their first bowl appearance of the Ferentz era.

The foundation of Kirk's Iowa program was established in his first two seasons and began to pay dividends late in the 2000 season when the Hawkeyes won in double overtime at Penn State. Iowa returned home the following week to post a 27-17 win over Big Ten co-champion Northwestern, ranked 12th in the nation at the time.

Ferentz was named Iowa's 25th head football coach on December 2, 1998. He replaced Fry, who retired after 20 seasons with the Hawkeyes. At Iowa, Ferentz has an overall record of 100-74, including a 96-55 mark over the last 12 seasons. He has posted a 59-53 record in Big Ten play. His career record is 112-95 in 17 years as a collegiate head coach. Ferentz is one of just seven Big Ten coaches ever to guide a team to 10 wins or more in three straight seasons.

And while Ferentz has guided the Iowa program to great success on the field, the Hawkeyes have also made their mark in the classroom. In the most recent release on academic standings (October, 2013), Iowa's football team compiled a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 82, which is 14 points above the national average. Iowa was one of just nine bowl teams following the 2011 season to score 80 percent or better on the NCAA's "real-time" measurement of academic success.

The 2012-13 Academic Progress Report (APR) showed a score of 961 for Iowa football, a 12-point increase from the previous year and a score that ranks well above the national average.

In 2005, Iowa tied Southern Cal and Virginia Tech with the best football student-athlete graduation rate (58%) among all Division I teams earning a bowl invitation. Among the teams which participated in bowl games following the 2002, 2003 and 2004 seasons, only Iowa and Southern Cal ranked in the top five in graduation rates in each of the three seasons.

Along with Ferentz earning conference and national Coach of the Year recognition, members of his staff have also been well recognized. Norm Parker, Iowa's defensive coordinator for 13 seasons, was named 2011 Assistant Coach of the Year by the Football Coaches Association of America. Parker was also a finalist for the 2004 and 2005 Frank Broyles Award, which also recognizes the top Division I assistant coach in the nation. Parker retired following the 2011 season. Phil Parker, who is in his 15th year on the staff and his second year as defensive coordinator, was named by Rivals.com in March, 2011 as a first team member of its College Football Coach Dream Team.

Rivals.com in 2007 named Eric Johnson one of the top recruiters in the Big Ten Conference and the nation. Ron Aiken, Iowa's defensive line coach through the 2006 season, was the American Football Coaches Association Division I Assistant Coach of the Year in 2002.

Under Ferentz and his staff, Hawkeye players have gathered all-Big Ten and national recognition at a record pace. Five Hawkeye players have earned national Player of the Year honors at their position. Those include offensive lineman Robert Gallery (Outland Trophy), place kicker Nate Kaeding (Lou Groza Award), quarterback Brad Banks (Davey O'Brien Award and AP Player of the Year), tight end Dallas Clark (John Mackey Award) and running back Shonn Greene (Doak Walker Award). Banks was also the runner-up in the 2002 Heisman Trophy voting.

Banks (2002) and Greene (2008) were both named Big Ten Conference Player of the Year and conference MVP. Guard Eric Steinbach (2002), Gallery (2003), King (2008) and Bulaga (2009) were all winners of the Big Ten Lineman of the Year award. WR Marvin McNutt in 2011 and DB Micah Hyde in 2012 were named by the Big Ten Conference as the Player of the Year at their respective positions.

Another part of Iowa's success under Ferentz is reflected in the annual NFL Draft. Six Hawkeyes were drafted in each of the three NFL drafts from 2010-12. The 18 Hawkeye selections over those three seasons ranked first in the Big Ten Conference and tied as third best nationally.

Reiff, an offensive tackle who declared for the draft following his junior season, was the 23rd overall pick (Detroit) in the 2012 NFL Draft. DL Adrian Clayborn was selected in the first round (20th selection, Tampa Bay) of the 2011 draft. OL Bryan Bulaga (23rd selection, Green Bay) was a first round pick in 2010 after also leaving for the NFL following his junior season. Bulaga was a starter for the Packers in the 2011 Super Bowl, at the time becoming the youngest player ever to start in the Super Bowl.

Joining Reiff in the 2012 NFL draft were DL Mike Daniels (Green Bay, fourth round), OL Adam Gettis (Washington, fifth), DB Shaun Prater (Cincinnati, fifth), WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. (Philadelphia, sixth), and DB Jordan Bernstine (Washington, seventh).

Additional selections in the 2011 draft included DL Christian Ballard (Minnesota), QB Ricky Stanzi (Kansas City), OL Julian Vandervelde (Philadelphia), DL Karl Klug (Tennessee) and DB Tyler Sash (New York Giants).

Joining Bulaga in the 2010 draft were LB Pat Angerer (Indianapolis), DB Amari Spivey (Detroit), TE Tony Moeaki (Kansas City), LB A.J. Edds (Miami) and OL Kyle Calloway (Buffalo).

RB Shonn Greene (New York Jets) and DB Bradley Fletcher (St. Louis Rams) were the first two players selected, respectively, in the third round of the 2009 NFL draft. OL Seth Olsen (Denver) was a fourth round selection and TE Brandon Myers (Oakland) was selected in the sixth round.

In the 2008 NFL draft, DB Charles Godfrey was a third round selection of the Carolina Panthers, while DE Ken Iwebema was a fourth round selection (Arizona) and LB Mike Humpal was selected in the sixth round (Pittsburgh).

LB Chad Greenway was a first round pick in the 2006 draft, with fellow linebacker Abdul Hodge being selected in the third round. In the 2007 draft, OL Marshal Yanda (third round, Baltimore), TE Scott Chandler (fourth, San Diego) and OL Mike Elgin (seventh, New England) were selected.

In the 2005 NFL draft, DE Matt Roth and DT Jonathan Babineaux were second round selections and DB Sean Considine was taken in the fourth round. Considine and Yanda played in the 2013 Super Bowl for Baltimore, each earning their first NFL championship ring.

Robert Gallery was the second selection in the 2004 NFL draft, while Bob Sanders was selected in the second round as the first pick of the Indianapolis Colts. Nate Kaeding, a third round selection of the San Diego Chargers, became the first kicker since 2000 (and just the sixth ever) to be selected on the first day of the draft. Kaeding retired following the 2012 season as one of the most accurate field goal kickers in NFL history.

Overall, 46 players have been drafted in the past 11 years, with six first round selections and 10 players being selected among the top 50 picks. In addition, nine Hawkeyes signed free agent contracts immediately following the 2004 draft. Six signed following the collective bargaining agreement prior to the 2011 season and six signed following the 2012 draft. Five players signed NFL free agent contracts the day after the 2003 and 2007 drafts, three in 2005 and 2008 and four following the 2006 and 2009 drafts.

Over the past 11 years, 106 of 119 (89 percent) of Iowa's senior starters under Coach Ferentz were selected in the NFL draft or signed to an NFL free agent contract. Iowa ranks among Big Ten leaders in number of players drafted (49) over the past 12 years.

Among the former Hawkeyes who have gone on to play in the NFL, Kaeding, Sanders, TE Dallas Clark (Indianapolis), DL Aaron Kampman (Green Bay), LB Chad Greenway (Minnesota), and OL Marshal Yanda (Baltimore) have earned all-Pro recognition. Sanders was named by the Associated Press as the 2007 NFL defensive Player of the Year. Greenway and Yanda, who were both drafted in 2006, were named to the Pro Bowl in both 2011 and 2012.

Ferentz joined the Iowa staff after serving as assistant head coach and offensive line coach of the Baltimore Ravens of the National Football League. He had been a part of the Baltimore (Cleveland Browns prior to the move) organization for six years.

Ferentz was a member of Hayden Fry's Iowa staff for nine years as offensive line coach (1981-89). Iowa appeared in eight bowl games during the time Ferentz was an Iowa assistant. A pair of Rose Bowls (1982 & 1986), two Holiday Bowl appearances (1986-87) and a pair of Peach Bowl visits (1982 & 1988), along with appearances in the Gator (1983) and Freedom (1984) bowls, highlighted his previous Iowa stay. Iowa's record in those nine years was 73-33-4 and included two 10-win and two nine-win seasons.

Offensive lines under the direction of Ferentz anchored four of Iowa's highest scoring offenses. Five of Iowa's top offensive teams, in terms of yards gained per game, were operating behind Ferentz coached offensive lines. And, seven of Iowa's top 10 passing teams of all time occurred during the Ferentz years of the 1980's.

Kirk's coaching career began as a student assistant (1977) at his alma mater, Connecticut. The next two years (1978-79) were spent at Worcester Academy, where Kirk also taught English literature. He served as a graduate assistant offensive line coach at Pittsburgh during the 1980 season. That Pittsburgh team (coached by Jackie Sherrill) finished with an 11-1 record and a number two national ranking.

He joined Fry's staff in 1981 and the Hawkeyes won their first conference title and Rose Bowl berth in over 20 years. A string of 19 straight non-winning seasons came to an end in 1981. Ferentz continued as Iowa's line coach thru the 1989 season.

Eleven Hawkeyes, coached by Ferentz (the assistant), went on to play in the National Football League. They were John Alt, Rob Baxley, Dave Croston, Scott Davis, Mike Devlin, Chris Gambol, Mike Haight, Ron Hallstrom, Joel Hilgenberg, Bob Kratch and Brett Miller. Alt, Haight and Hallstrom were first round picks in the NFL draft and five of his players were first team all-Big Ten.

Ferentz was named head coach of the Maine Bears in 1990 and held that position for three years before being hired by Bill Belichick and the Cleveland Browns.

Kirk served as the honorary chair of the University of Iowa's 1999-00 United Way campaign and he serves on the National Advisory Board of the Bethesda Family Services Foundation. Kirk and his wife, Mary, have given two major financial gifts to the University of Iowa. The most recent was a $400,000 gift to the University's College of Liberal Arts and University Children's Hospital. The Ferentz' also made a $100,000 gift to the University's College of Liberal Arts in 2003.

Kirk and Mary are very enthusiastic supporters of the University of Iowa Children's Hospital. From serving as advocates for the hospital across the state; to hosting and speaking at events to raise support for UI Children's Hospital; to their personal generosity in establishing the "Ferentz Family Pediatric Research and Education Endowment Fund" in 2007. In addition, the Iowa Women's Football Academy has pledged $1 million to the University of Iowa's new Children's Hospital, currently under construction.

Ferentz was born August 1, 1955, in Royal Oak, Mich. He attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh. He graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1978 with a bachelor's degree in English Education. He was a football captain and an academic all-Yankee Conference linebacker at UConn.

Kirk received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the Neag School of Education at the University of Connecticut in May, 2009. He was inducted into the Upper St. Clair High School Hall of Fame in September, 2002 and the Western Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in May, 2003.

Kirk and his wife, Mary, have five children, and one granddaughter (Presley). They are Brian, Kelly, Joanne, James and Steven. Brian was a three-year letterman (2003-05) with the Hawkeye football team and is in his second year as Iowa's offensive line coach. James earned his third letter as a Hawkeye senior in 2012, starting at center in all 38 games over the past three seasons. Steven is a redshirt freshman in 2013. Joanne earned her bachelor's degree from Iowa in 2010 and Kelly earned her JD and MHA degrees from Iowa in 2010 and 2011.

Greg Davis

Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks

Second Year at Iowa

Recruits Quarterback position

Greg Davis, a 39-year coaching veteran, is in his second year as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Iowa. Davis most recently served in the same capacity at the University of Texas for 13 seasons (1998-2010).

Davis was named Frank Broyles Assistant Coach of the Year in 2005 after Texas won the BCS national championship. Texas has had just five quarterbacks start a game in the NFL, and Davis tutored three of them (Colt McCoy, Vince Young, Chris Simms).

Davis has coached in 18 bowl games, including the Holiday Bowl (four), Rose Bowl (three), Cotton (three), Gator (two), Independence (two), Fiesta, Alamo, Peach and Hall of Fame. Davis coached in the BCS national championship game twice (2006 and 2010 Rose Bowl games) and competed in the Grantland Rice Bowl as a player at McNeese State.

Under his guidance, the Texas offense produced 10 of the top 11 passing seasons, 11 of the top 13 total offense campaigns and the top nine scoring years in school history. Texas averaged 39.0 points per game from 2000-09, which ranked second nationally and first among BCS conference schools. In 2005, Texas set a then-NCAA record with 652 total points and a school record by averaging 50.2 ppg.

Under Davis, five Longhorns were named Big 12 Offensive Players of the Year, including RB Ricky Williams, 1998; QB Major Applewhite, 1999; QB Vince Young, 2005; QB Colt McCoy, 2008 and 2009. At Texas, Davis tutored three finalists for the Heisman Trophy, including two players who were second in Heisman voting, two winners each of the Walter Camp Football Foundation Players of the Year, Maxwell Award, Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award and Archie Griffin Award. He tutored a winner of the Uteas Golden Arm Award, a Sporting News Player of the Year and Chevrolet Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2009, Texas averaged 39.3 points per game (third NCAA), 421.2 total yards (29th NCAA), 273.6 passing yards (22nd NCAA) and 147.6 yards rushing. Senior QB Colt McCoy led the nation in completion percentage (70.6) for the second straight year while taking home the WCFF Player of the Year Award, Maxwell Award, Davey O'Brien Award, Uteas Golden Arm Award and Manning Award. WR Jordan Shipley was also a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award.

In 2008, the Longhorns finished in the nation's Top 10 in pass efficiency (second/175.0), scoring offense (fifth/42.4 ppg), passing offense (seventh/308.3 ypg) and total offense (ninth/475.8 ypg). McCoy set a NCAA single-season record for completion percentage at 76.7 and set single-season school records for completions (332), yards (3,859), touchdowns (34) and passer rating (173.8). For the first time in school history and 11th in NCAA history, Texas had two receivers with at least 85 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards.

In 2007, Texas averaged 462.9 yards of total offense (13th NCAA), 207.5 yards rushing (17th NCAA) and 37.2 points per game (14th NCAA). McCoy completed 65.1 percent of his passes for 3,303 yards (No. 3 on Texas' single-season list) and 22 touchdowns.

Despite breaking in a freshman quarterback in McCoy in 2006, Davis helped Texas remain one of the nation's top offenses. McCoy finished the season as a Davey O'Brien Award semifinalist and was named National Freshman of the Year by Sporting News and the Touchdown Club of Columbus. As a whole, Texas finished 2006 ranked sixth in scoring offense (35.9 ppg) and 22nd in total offense (391.5 ypg).

Behind Davis' leadership, the Texas offense had a record-breaking year in 2005, one in which Davis was recognized as the nation's top assistant coach with the Frank Broyles Award. The Longhorns' 652 points were the most scored in NCAA history. They also set the school record for total offense with 6,657 yards. Texas became only the fifth team to average over 50 points per game (50.2 ppg) and 500 yards per game (512.1 ypg) in NCAA history.

Young also flourished under Davis in 2005, winning both the Davey O'Brien and Manning Awards as the nation's top quarterback. He also won the Maxwell Award and was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. He became the first player in NCAA history to throw for 3,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

The Longhorns took advantage of a veteran offensive line and All-America RB Cedric Benson in 2004 to finish the season ranked second in the country in rushing offense (299.2 ypg), seventh in total offense (464.4 ypg) and 12th in scoring (35.3 ppg). As a sophomore, Young completed nearly 60 percent of his passes for 1,849 yards and 12 touchdowns. He also rushed for 1,079 yards and 14 scores and was the Rose Bowl MVP.

In 2003, Davis took an offense with two first-year starting quarterbacks and led it to, what was, the best total offense season in school history (5,709 yards) and a then-school record 533 points. The 3,023 rushing yards were the most for Texas since 1977.

As a redshirt freshman, Young became the first quarterback in school history to post better than 900 yards rushing (998) and passing (1,155) while earning Big 12 Freshman of the Year honors. Junior Chance Mock had the nation's top touchdown-to-interception ratio (16 TDs/2 INTs).

Under Davis in 2002, senior quarterback Chris Simms established school single-season records for touchdown passes (26) and touchdowns accounted for (30). His 3,207 passing yards and 3,083 yards total offense ranked second best for a single season.

Simms is second in Texas history with a 58.7 completion percentage (535-of-911) and second in passer efficiency rating (138.4). He ranks second on the school's all-time touchdown passes list (58) and fourth in passing yards (7,097).

One year earlier, Simms, the Big 12 leader in passing efficiency (144.25), started 12 games and threw 22 touchdown passes (No. 2 on UT's season list) as the Longhorns posted a 10-2 record in his 12 starts.

Davis spent 1999 directing an offense that was the first in school history and one of only four nationally to boast a 3,000-yard passer as well as a 1,000-yard rusher and receiver. He was named a finalist for the 1999 Frank Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant.

Applewhite set school season marks for passing yards (3,357) and total offense (3,211) en route to Big 12 co-Offensive Player of the Year honors.

In Davis' first year at Texas in 1998, the Longhorns became just the second unit in NCAA Division I-A history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher (Ricky Williams) and passer (Major Applewhite), as well as a 1,000-yard receiver (Wane McGarity). An early season injury forced redshirt freshman Major Applewhite into the lineup. Applewhite went on to set school freshman records for passing yards (2,453) and touchdown passes (18). He was named Big 12 Freshman of the Year.

Prior to his stint at Texas, Davis helped develop the quarterback duo of Chris Keldorf and Oscar Davenport, who teamed to complete 60% of their passes for more than 2,700 yards in each of Davis' two years at North Carolina.

Davis was the head coach at Tulane for four seasons (1988-91), where he succeeded Mack Brown. He spent three seasons (1985-87) as assistant head coach and wide receivers coach at Tulane under Brown. Davis spent two seasons (1992-93) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas and two years (1994-95) as Georgia's passing game coordinator before joining Brown at North Carolina.

While at Georgia, Davis helped lead the Bulldogs to the 1995 Peach Bowl despite injuries to the team's top two quarterbacks. He did so by preparing converted slot back Hines Ward for the starting quarterback position. Ward set a school bowl game record by completing 31-of-59 passes for 413 yards in the Peach Bowl. Davis also coached first team All-American Eric Zeier, a third-round pick of the Cleveland Browns.

Davis began his college coaching career at Texas A&M, serving as the Aggies' quarterbacks coach (1978-84). He then joined Brown as assistant head coach and wide receivers coach at Tulane in 1985.

Davis began his career in the high school ranks while working toward his master's degree. He coached at Barbe High School (Lake Charles, La.) from 1973-74 and Port Neches-Groves High School (Port Neches, Texas) from 1975-77, where he helped lead the Indians to the 1975 Texas 4A state title.

The native of Groves, Texas, earned his bachelor's degree (sports administration, 1973) and master's degree (1977) from McNeese State.

Greg and his wife, Patsy, have two children, Greg Jr. and Stacey, and five grandchildren. Greg Jr. and his wife, Karen, have two daughters, Taylor and Kaylen. Stacey and her husband, Kory, have three children, a daughter, Brook, and two sons, K.J. and Davis.

Recruits Michigan and Ohio

Phil Parker, who served as defensive backs coach at the University of Iowa for 13 seasons, is in his second season as defensive coordinator. He will return to coaching Iowa's defensive secondary in 2013 as well. Phil was named by Rivals.com in March, 2011, as a first team member of its College Football Assistant Coach Dream Team.

Iowa has participated in 10 bowl games since 2001. The Hawkeyes won bowl games following the 2008, 2009 and 2010 seasons, defeating ranked opponents in both 2009 and 2010. The Hawkeyes have ranked in the final top 10 of both major polls four times in the past 11 seasons.

Iowa has appeared in six January bowl games since 2001. The Hawkeyes have won six-of-10 bowl games under Kirk Ferentz and his staff, including four January bowl victories. The January Bowl wins have come over Florida (2004 Outback), LSU (2005 Capital One), South Carolina (2009 Outback) and Georgia Tech (2010 Orange).

Iowa has won 89 games over the past 11 seasons, including 52 Big Ten games. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and tied for second in 2009. Iowa has finished in the Big Ten's first division in 10 of the past 12 years.

Following the 2012 season, senior defensive back Micah Hyde was named the recipient of the Tatum-Woodson Defensive Back of the Year in the Big Ten Conference, earning first team All-Big Ten honors. In addition, defensive end Joe Gaglione and linebackers James Morris and Anthony Hitchens all earned honorable mention recognition. Hyde was selected by Green Bay in the fifth round of the NFL Draft.

Iowa's secondary in 2011 was led by senior Shaun Prater, who earned first team all-Big Ten honors for the second straight season, junior Micah Hyde, who earned second team honors and senior safety Jordan Bernstine. Over the past five seasons, Iowa ranks among the national leaders with 83 interceptions.

Prater was selected by Cincinnati in the fifth round of the 2012 NFL Draft, while Bernstine was selected by Washington in the seventh round.

The defensive secondary played a key role in Iowa's success in 2010. Iowa was second in the Big Ten in pass efficiency defense (115.1) and interceptions (19). Iowa tied for 11th in the nation in interceptions, returning four thefts for touchdowns. Defensive backs Tyler Sash and Shaun Prater were both named first team all-Big Ten, while Brett Greenwood earned second team honors and Micah Hyde was honorable mention.

Sash started the final 34 games of his career and ranks fifth in career interceptions. He declared for the NFL following his junior season in 2010 and was a sixth round selection of the New York Giants. Sash earned a Super Bowl ring in his rookie season with the Giants in 2011.

Iowa's success in 2009 was due, in part, to the play of the secondary. Iowa ranked third in the nation in pass efficiency defense and fourth in pass defense while leading the Big Ten in both categories. The Hawkeyes tied for fifth nationally with 21 interceptions while ranking eighth in scoring defense and 10th in total defense. Safety Tyler Sash and cornerback Amari Spivey both earned first team all-Big Ten recognition, while safety Brett Greenwood was a second team selection. Spivey declared for the NFL Draft following his junior season in 2009 and was selected in the third round by the Detroit Lions.

In 2008, Iowa ranked fourth in the nation while tying a school record with 23 interceptions. The Hawkeyes led the Big Ten and ranked fifth nationally in pass efficiency defense (98.3) and scoring defense (13.0). Spivey earned second team all-conference honors, while Bradley Fletcher and Greenwood claimed honorable mention recognition.

Fletcher enjoyed an outstanding senior season in 2008, starting all 13 games. He was selected by St. Louis in the third round of the 2009 NFL Draft.

Under Parker's direction, safety Bob Sanders became the ninth Iowa player to earn first team all-Big Ten honors for three seasons (2001, 2002, and 2003). Sanders earned second team All-America honors in 2003 and was taken by Indianapolis in the second round of the 2004 NFL Draft. He ranks seventh in career tackles (348). Sanders earned all-Pro recognition with the Colts in 2005 and was selected to the Pro Bowl. He was a key contributor again in 2006 as the Colts won the Super Bowl. He was named the NFL's defensive Player of the Year in 2007 and was again an all-Pro selection.

Senior cornerback Charles Godfrey led the Iowa secondary in 2007, recording five interceptions and 65 tackles. He earned second team all-Big Ten honors. Godfrey was selected in the third round of the 2008 NFL Draft, being selected by the Carolina Panthers as the 67th pick in the draft. He has been a starter in all five seasons with Carolina.

In 2006, senior safeties Marcus Paschal and Miguel Merrick combined for 149 tackles to lead the Hawkeye secondary. Paschal was a second team all-Big Ten selection and signed a free agent contract with Philadelphia. Merrick signed a free agent contract with San Diego.

In 2005 senior cornerback Antwan Allen was the only player in the nation to start in four straight January bowl games. He ended his career with 235 tackles and eight interceptions. Jovon Johnson, at the opposite corner, also started throughout his career. He ranks third in career interceptions (17) and had 181 career tackles. Johnson played with the Pittsburgh Steelers and New York Jets in the NFL and now plays in the Canadian Football League. He was the CFL's Most Outstanding Defensive Player in 2011, becoming the first defensive back to win the award. He is a two-time CFL All-Star.

Safeties Derek Pagel and Sean Considine joined the Iowa program as walk-ons and earned their way into the starting line-up. Each helped the Hawkeyes win a Big Ten title as seniors and both were NFL Draft selections. Pagel earned second team all-Big Ten honors in 2002 was selected in the fifth round of the 2003 draft. Considine was a fourth round selection in 2005 after earning honorable mention all-Big Ten recognition. He joined the Baltimore Ravens in 2012 and played a key role on special teams for the Super Bowl champions.

In 1999, Iowa's secondary was led by the play of safety Matt Bowen. Bowen led the team in tackles as both a junior and senior. He was voted second team all-Big Ten and was a sixth round selection of the St. Louis Rams in the NFL Draft. Bowen played several seasons in the NFL (Washington and Buffalo) following his college career.

Parker was the defensive backfield coach at Toledo for 11 seasons prior to joining the Iowa staff. During his tenure at Toledo, Parker coached 10 all-conference selections and helped the Rockets win conference division championships in 1997 and 1998. Three of his Toledo players, Darren Anderson, Clarence Love and Kelly Herndon, went on to play in the NFL. Anderson and Love were NFL draft selections, while Herndon signed as a free agent and played in the 2006 Super Bowl with Seattle. In 1998, Toledo ranked 19th in the nation in scoring defense.

Toledo won Mid-American Conference championships in 1990 and 1995 and competed in the 1995 Las Vegas Bowl. Toledo ranked 12th in the nation in total defense in 1990 and ninth in pass efficiency defense and 11th in rushing defense in 1992. In 1995 Toledo completed an undefeated season and was ranked 22nd in the final UPI poll and 24th in the CNN poll after leading the nation in turnover margin. Toledo also finished second to perennial power Marshall twice when Parker was a member of the Rocket staff.

Parker served as a graduate assistant coach for one year at Michigan State. He was on the Spartan staff in 1987 when MSU won the Big Ten title and defeated Southern California in the 1988 Rose Bowl.

Phil was a standout defensive back at Michigan State, earning first team all-Big Ten honors in 1983, 1984 and 1985. Parker was named as invited to the Hula Bowl following his senior season. During his MSU career the Spartans competed in the 1984 Cherry Bowl and the 1985 All-American Bowl. Parker was named Most Valuable Player in the Cherry Bowl.

Parker earned his B.S. degree from Michigan State in 1986.

Parker was born March 13, 1963 in Lorain, Ohio. Phil and his wife, Sandy, have two children, Tyler and Paige.

Brian Ferentz
Offensive Line
Second Year at Iowa
Recruits Illinois and Ohio

Brian Ferentz, a three-year letterman as an offensive lineman at the University of Iowa, is in his second year as Iowa's offensive line coach. Brian joined the Hawkeye staff after spending the previous four years with the NFL's New England Patriots.

Iowa's offensive line in 2012 was led by senior center James Ferentz and senior tackle/guard Matt Tobin, two players who earned all-Big Ten recognition. In addition, redshirt freshman Austin Blythe earned FWAAs Freshman All-America honors. Iowa's offensive line put together a string of four consecutive games without allowing a quarterback sack and allowed less than two sacks in six of 12 games overall. As a team the Hawkeyes ranked second in the Big Ten and 19th in the nation in fewest penalties (4.6) per game.

Brian, the son of head coach Kirk Ferentz, served as New England's tight ends coach in 2011, helping the Patriots win the AFC championship and a spot in the 2012 Super Bowl. Brian was an offensive assistant coach in 2010, working exclusively with the tight ends. He spent 2009 as a coaching assistant after serving as a scouting assistant for the Patriots during the 2008 season.

Under his direction, two Patriot rookie tight ends made a big impact in 2010. The New England duo ranked first and second, among all rookie tight ends with 10 and six touchdown catches, respectively. They became the first pair of rookie tight ends with at least five touchdowns in the same season in NFL history. Rob Gronkowski's 10 touchdown receptions rank second in NFL history for a rookie tight end, as only Mike Ditka (12) had more touchdowns as a rookie.

Rob Gronkowski set additional records in 2011, including individual records for receiving touchdowns by a tight end (17), total touchdowns by a tight end (18) and receiving yards by a tight end (1,327). As a tandem, the Patriot tight ends also set three NFL single season records: total touchdowns by a tight end tandem (24), receptions by a tight end tandem (169) and total yards by a tight end tandem (2,237).

Brian played both offensive guard and center during his Iowa career. He earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors as a senior in 2005, and was academic All-Big Ten in 2003. He was a team captain as a senior and played on Iowa teams that were among the most successful in school history. Brian was part of two Big Ten championship teams (2002 and 2004).

He started at center in every game as a senior in 2005. He started eight games at right guard in 2004 as the Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title and a bid to the Capital One Bowl. Iowa won each of the eight games he started after he had missed the first four games of the year due to injury. Ferentz earned the starting center position as a sophomore and started five games before missing the second half of the season due to injury.

During his tenure as a player, Iowa participated in the BCS FedEx Orange Bowl, two Outback Bowls, and a Capital One Bowl, compiling an overall record of 38-12. The Hawkeyes defeated Florida in the 2004 Outback Bowl and defending national champion LSU in the 2005 Capital One Bowl.

Ferentz was a member of Iowa's Leadership Council and as a senior was the recipient of the Hayden Fry "Extra Heartbeat Award". The annual award goes to the Hawkeye player who gives extraordinary effort on the field. He was recognized with the "Next Man In" award as a junior.

Brian was selected to participate in the 2006 Hula Bowl following his Hawkeye career. He signed a free agent contract with Atlanta and was a member of the Falcons practice squad in 2006. He was with the New Orleans Saints throughout their 2007 training camp.

He earned his bachelor's degree in history from Iowa in 2006.

Ferentz was born March 28, 1983 in Iowa City. Brian and his wife, Nikki, have a baby daughter, Presley.

Iowa led the Big Ten and ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense in 2008. LB Pat Angerer earned All-America recognition following the 2009 season. Bobby Kennedy

Wide Receivers

First Year at Iowa

Recruits Dallas, Texas, Colorado and Kansas City area

Bobby Kennedy was named wide receivers coach at the University of Iowa on Feb. 14, 2013. Kennedy joins the Iowa program with 22 years of experience as a college coach, including the past two seasons as wide receivers coach at the University of Colorado.

Kennedy has coached four players to All-America honors, while nine of his players have earned first team all-conference recognition. He has coached in 12 bowl games, including four BCS games (two BCS championship games, one Rose Bowl and one Fiesta Bowl). In his first season at Colorado, he helped mold senior Toney Clemons into one of the nation's top receivers. Clemons was selected by Pittsburgh in the 2012 NFL Draft.

Kennedy joined the Colorado staff from the University of Texas, where he spent seven seasons (2004-10) as wide receivers coach, the last six as the assistant recruiting coordinator. In his time at Texas, Kennedy coached in two BCS National Championship games, the 2005 Rose Bowl victory over USC when the Longhorns won the national championship, and in 2009 against Alabama.

Kennedy's first season in Austin came immediately after the Longhorns had lost three wide receivers to the National Football League. He proceeded to build a receiver corps that included three Biletnikoff Award candidates, including two semifinalists and one finalist. In 2008, Jordan Shipley and Quan Cosby both surpassed 85 receptions and 1,000 yards, becoming the 11th duo in NCAA history to each surpass 1,000 yards. In 2009, Shipley was a consensus All-American, setting Texas records for catches (116) and receiving yards (1,485), while matching the school record for receiving touchdowns (13).

His receivers amassed 142 catches in 2005, helping the Longhorns to the third-best single-season passing mark in school history. With the emergence of Colt McCoy at quarterback in 2006, the receivers increased those totals to 158 receptions for 2,180 yards and 25 touchdowns. In 2007, the receivers caught 187 passes for 2,275 yards and 18 touchdowns before the emergence of Cosby and Shipley. Shipley earned All-America honors in two seasons. Kennedy also coached five receivers to seven All-Big 12 honors in seven years.

Kennedy joined the Texas program from Washington, where he tutored wide receiver Reggie Williams to two All-America campaigns before he became the No. 9 overall pick in the 2004 NFL Draft. Williams set UW's single season mark for receptions (94) and receiving yards (1,454) in 2002. The following season he was fourth in the NCAA in receptions (7.4 per game) and 16th in yardage (92.4). He finished his career as Washington's all-time leading receiver with 238 receptions and 3,536 yards.

He coached running backs at Arizona in 2001, where he coached sophomore Clarence Farmer to first-team All-Pac 10 honors. Farmer led the league in rushing (111.7 yards per game), a mark that ranked 21st nationally.

Prior to Arizona, Kennedy had a six-year tenure at Wake Forest, coaching the Demon Deacon running backs in 1999-2000 after four years (1995-98) as receivers coach. He mentored Desmond Clark, the ACC's leading receiver, and Jammie Deese, who was second in the ACC in receiving, in 1998. After moving to the running backs spot, he coached Morgan Kane, who rushed for 1,161 yards and 10 touchdowns in 1999 while becoming the third leading rusher in school history.

Kennedy's first full time coaching position came at Wyoming, where he coached the wide receivers in 1993-94. He coached two extremely talented receivers while in Laramie in Ryan Yarborough, who was second in the NCAA in receptions in 1993, and Marcus Harris, who led the nation in receiving yards in 1994. Both Harris and Yarborough earned All-America honors for the Cowboys.

Kennedy began his coaching career in the Big Ten Conference with two graduate assistant positions. He coached at Illinois in 1990 and 1991 and at Penn State in 1992. At Penn State, he worked with the tight ends and coached two future All-Americans in Troy Drayton and Kyle Brady.

He earned his degree in Political Science in 1989 from the University of Northern Colorado, after lettering at quarterback for four seasons (1985-88). He began his coaching career at Boulder High School, his alma mater, where he lettered in football and track.

Kennedy was born Dec. 13, 1966, in Denver, before growing up in Boulder. He is married to the former LaShonda Lawrence.

Reese Morgan
Defensive Line
14th Year at Iowa
Recruits Iowa, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota

Reese Morgan, one of the most successful high school coaches in Iowa prep history, is in his 14th year as a member of the University of Iowa coaching staff. He is in his second year as Iowa's defensive line coach. Morgan served as Iowa's offensive line coach for nine seasons after spending the first three years on the staff as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

Iowa has participated in 10 bowl games since 2001. The Hawkeyes won bowl games following the 2008, 2009 and 2010 seasons, defeating ranked opponents in both 2009 and 2010. The Hawkeyes have ranked in the final top 10 of both major polls four times in the past 11 seasons.

Iowa has appeared in six January bowl games since 2001. The Hawkeyes have won six-of-10 bowl games under Kirk Ferentz and his staff, including four January bowl victories. The January Bowl wins have come over Florida (2004 Outback), LSU (2005 Capital One), South Carolina (2009 Outback) and Georgia Tech (2010 Orange).

Iowa has won 89 games over the past 11 seasons, including 52 Big Ten games. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and tied for second in 2009. Iowa has finished in the Big Ten's first division in 10 of the past 12 years.

Among the reasons for Iowa's success has been the play of Iowa's offensive line, working under the direction of Morgan. With two new starters in 2011, the Hawkeye offensive line led the way as Iowa's offense featured a 3,000-yard passing quarterback and a running back and wide receiver who each gained over 1,300 yards.

Junior tackle Riley Reiff earned first team all-Big Ten honors in 2011, along with earning All-America recognition from several outlets. In addition, senior guard Adam Gettis was named second team all-Big Ten and junior center James Ferentz and senior tackle Markus Zusevics earned honorable mention recognition.

Reiff declared for the NFL Draft following his junior season and was selected in the first round by the Detroit Lions. As the 23rd overall selection, Reiff became Iowa's third first round selection in three years. In addition, Gettis was selected in the fifth round by Washington and Zusevics signed an NFL free agent contract with New England the day after the draft. All three were on NFL rosters throughout the 2012 season. Iowa has had at least one offensive lineman selected in eight of the last 11 NFL drafts.

Iowa's offensive line featured three first-year starters in 2010. Still, the Hawkeyes ranked among the national leaders in fewest penalties, fewest penalty yards, QB sacks allowed and fewest turnovers. Senior guard Julian Vandervelde and sophomore tackle Riley Reiff earned second team all-Big Ten honors. Vandervelde was selected in the fifth round of the 2011 NFL Draft by Philadelphia.

In 2009, tackle Bryan Bulaga was named Offensive Lineman of the Year in the Big Ten, earning first team all-conference honors. Dace Richardson returned to earn first team honors after missing over a year and a half due to injury.

Bulaga declared for the NFL Draft following his junior season in 2009 and was the 23rd player selected in the 2010 NFL Draft when he was taken by the Green Bay Packers. Tackle Kyle Calloway was selected in the sixth round by the Buffalo Bills. Bulaga earned a starting spot at right tackle for the Super Bowl champion Packers as a rookie, becoming the youngest player ever to start in the Super Bowl.

Iowa, in 2008, ranked third in the Big Ten and 26th nationally in rushing yards per game (188.7). Iowa featured running back Shonn Greene, who earned the Doak Walker Award as the top running back in the nation. Greene was the only running back in the nation to rush for over 100 yards in every game during the 2008 season.

Senior Seth Olsen led the way for the Hawkeyes in 2008, earning first team all-Big Ten honors and All-American recognition. Center Rob Bruggeman and tackles Kyle Calloway and Bryan Bulaga all earned second team all-conference recognition. Olsen was selected in the fourth round of the 2009 NFL Draft by Denver. Bruggeman signed a free agent contract with Tampa Bay immediately following the draft.

The 2006 Hawkeyes ranked third in the Big Ten in total offense (just a yard behind second place Ohio State) and second in pass offense. In 2005, Iowa boasted the Big Ten's leading rusher and the league's best red zone offense.

In the 2007 NFL Draft, Marshal Yanda (Baltimore) was selected in the third round and Mike Elgin (New England) was a seventh round selection. In addition, Mike Jones signed a free agent contract with the San Diego Chargers. Jones was a first team all-Big Ten selection, while Yanda earned second team honors. Elgin was a first team academic All-American in each of his final two seasons. Yanda has started at both guard and tackle for the Ravens over the past six seasons. He played a key role in Baltimore's drive to the 2013 Super Bowl championship and has been selected for the Pro Bowl the last two seasons.

In 2005 the Hawkeyes averaged 30 points a game behind quarterback Drew Tate and Big Ten rushing leader Albert Young. Senior center Brian Ferentz started the final 20 games of his career in 2004 and 2005 and signed a free agent contract with Atlanta immediately following the 2006 NFL Draft.

Due to a number of injuries to Iowa running backs in 2004, Iowa developed one of the most dangerous passing attacks in the nation. The Hawkeyes scored 23 points or more in the final five games of the season, including 30 points in wins over Wisconsin and LSU. For the year, Iowa ranked second in the Big Ten in passing offense, pass efficiency and red zone offense.

Right tackle Pete McMahon was the lone senior in 2004 in the offensive line. Facing two of the more-highly regarded defensive ends in the nation in Iowa's final two games, McMahon led by example by controlling his opponents, who were both first round selections in the NFL Draft. McMahon was taken in the NFL draft by the Oakland Raiders.

Anchored by consensus All-American and Outland Trophy winner Robert Gallery at left tackle, Iowa's offensive line had four new starters to start the 2003 season. By the end of the year, in which the Hawkeyes won 10 games and featured RB Fred Russell with over 1,300 rushing yards, the offensive line had meshed together as one of Iowa's strong points. The Hawkeyes ended the season by rushing for over 200 yards in a win at Wisconsin and in the Outback Bowl win over Florida.

Gallery was a consensus first team All-American at the end of the year. He was the second player selected in the NFL Draft, being taken by the Oakland Raiders. In becoming Iowa's third Outland Trophy winner, he became the second Outland Trophy winner coached by Morgan. As the head coach at Benton Community HS, Morgan coached Chad Hennings, the 1987 winner, who was a defensive tackle at the Air Force Academy. Hennings is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

As tight ends coach in 2002, Morgan coached tight end Dallas Clark to consensus All-America honors. Clark was also named winner of the John Mackey Award, which goes annually to college football's top tight end. Clark was named to at least seven first team All-America teams. Clark earned a Super Bowl championship with the Indianapolis Colts and earned all-Pro honors in 2009.

In his first season overseeing the Dolphins' outside linebackers, Joey Porter produced a career-high 17.5 sacks, a figure that ranked second in the NFL in 2008. Miami hoisted the AFC East Division Championship banner for the first time in eight seasons. It also marked the most-ever sacks by a Dolphins linebacker and third-most overall. Chris White

Running Backs and Special Teams
First Year at Iowa
Recruits New Jersey, Maryland and Pennsylvania

Chris White joined the Iowa coaching staff in February, 2013, after spending the previous four years on the coaching staff of the Minnesota Vikings. White coaches Hawkeye running backs and coordinates special teams.

Prior to his four seasons with the Vikings, White coached on the collegiate level for 17 years. For the past four seasons, White has assisted in coaching the Viking special teams. In 2012, Minnesota posted a 10-6 record, earning a Wild Card playoff berth while setting a team record for biggest turnaround in victories from one season to the next.

In 2012, Minnesota's special teams were recognized with the No. 1 ranking in the well-respected Dallas Morning News season-ending special teams' evaluations. The special teams unit was headlined by rookie kicker Blair Walsh's record-setting season, as he earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors. His 141 points are the second-most ever by an NFL rookie and rank second in club history.

Over the past two seasons, the Vikings 26.8-yard kickoff return average led the NFL. Defensively, the Vikings led the NFL by allowing only 18 kickoff returns of 20-plus yards. Minnesota was third in the NFL with an average starting field position at the 24.6 yard line following kickoff returns, and had six kickoff returns of 40-plus yards. The return units earned a place in the Minnesota record book by returning both a kick and punt return for a touchdown at Detroit.

After joining the Vikings in 2009, White helped oversee a special teams unit that sent a pair of members to the Pro Bowl and made an impact on the Vikings record book along the way. The Vikings special teams were instrumental in the team winning a second consecutive NFC North title and winning 12 games in the regular season, tied for the second-best total in team history.

The 2009 special teams were represented at the Pro Bowl by returner Percy Harvin and cover man Heath Farwell. Harvin set a Vikings record by returning a pair of kickoff returns for touchdowns during the season, including a 101-yard return that ties as the second-longest in Vikings history.

White joined the Vikings after a nine-year stint at Syracuse University where, at different times throughout his tenure, he coached wide receivers and tight ends, and was the special teams' coordinator and recruiting coordinator. White's nine seasons at Syracuse were highlighted by a 2001 Insight Bowl victory and a share of the Big East championship in 2004. A combined seven units ranked in the nation's top 20 under White's direction as special teams coordinator from 2000-03.

White served as the Orange's wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator, a post he moved to prior to the 2005 season. He spent his first three years at Syracuse working with the tight ends and as special teams' coordinator. From the start of the 2000 season until he left his post as special teams coordinator in 2003, only seven teams in the country blocked more kicks than the Orange (22). Syracuse also scored eight touchdowns on special teams during the same time frame.

White served a dual-role at Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo in 1999, working as both defensive and special teams' coordinator. White spent three seasons at UNLV (1996-98), serving as linebackers coach and special teams' coordinator. The lone head coaching job of White's career came during a three-year stint with Bishop Manogue High School in Las Vegas from 1994-96. He was named the Northern Nevada Coach of the Year in 1996.

White's first full-time role in coaching came as the assistant quarterbacks coach for the College of the Holy Cross (Mass., 1993-94). In his two years at that post, both of the Crusaders starting quarterbacks ended their respective seasons with quarterback efficiency ratings over 100. White began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Syracuse (1990-91) and Arkansas State (1992).

In his first stint at Syracuse, White worked with former Vikings quarterback coach Kevin Rogers and Paul Pasqualoni. The Orange won the 1990 Aloha and 1991 Hall of Fame bowls.

During his college career, White was a four-year starter at quarterback for Colby College (Maine) and was a team captain as a senior. As a prep, he attended Philips Exeter Academy. White earned his bachelor's degree in government in 1990 and a master's degree in education from Syracuse in 1992.

White was born June 29, 1967, and is a native of Groveland, Mass. He and his wife, Angel, have two daughters, Payton and Riley.

Iowa Coach Kirk Ferentz felt his team had a positive spring practice leading into the 2013 season, and feels his team will continue to show improvement throughout the month of August in preparing for the upcoming season.

Iowa will open fall practice with 14 returning starters, including its two leading rushers and four of the five leading receivers on offense, and its top three tacklers on defense. Still, there are a number of spots to fill on the depth chart, even after the young Hawkeye team was able to add valuable experience throughout the spring. The added experience of last season could play a major role in Iowa's quest to reverse its 2012 fortunes of five losses by an average of 3.2 points per loss.

Iowa's roster features 39 lettermen, including six returning starters on offense and eight on defense, along with senior placekicker Mike Meyer, sophomore punter Connor Kornbrath and senior long snapper Casey Kreiter. There are 16 seniors and eight of the 39 lettermen have earned three letters. Experienced players return at each position, with the exception of quarterback, where none of the candidates have taken a snap for the Hawkeyes, and fullback.

Iowa was the only team in the nation to play six games during the 2012 regular season that were decided by three points or less. While posting a 4-8 overall record (2-6 in Big Ten play), five of Iowa's losses came by a combined total of 19 points. In two games, Iowa's opponent scored the winning points on a field goal on the final play of the game.

The 2012 schedule proved to be a strong one. Nine of Iowa's 12 opponents played in bowl games, while Penn State, ineligible for postseason play, also won eight games. Iowa's victories included a win over Orange Bowl participant Northern Illinois and bowl participants Minnesota and Michigan State. With the opening win over Northern Illinois, Iowa defeated a BCS bowl team for the fifth time in six years.

Ferentz heads into his 15th season as Iowa's head coach. Ferentz is tied for fourth among all FBS coaches in longevity. Ferentz has posted a 100-74 record with the Hawkeyes, including a 98-56 record over the past 12 seasons. Iowa has played in 10 bowl games under Ferentz, posting a 6-4 record that includes four January bowl victories and a 1-1 mark in BCS bowl games. Ferentz' six bowl victories tie for third most ever among Big Ten coaches.

The Iowa coaching staff also has a number of changes. Bobby Kennedy takes over as wide receivers coach, while Chris White is coaching Iowa's running backs and coordinating special teams. Jim Reid is in his first year working with the Iowa defense, where he will coach linebackers, and DJ Hernandez will coach tight ends after joining the program as a graduate assistant.

Off the field, Hawkeye players continued to be recognized for their efforts in the classroom. Fifteen Hawkeyes earned academic all-Big Ten recognition in 2012, while DL Steve Bigach, LB James Morris and QB James Vandenberg were named to the Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-District Six team. Bigach and Vandenberg, both seniors, were named to the district team for the second straight year. Under Kirk Ferentz, 20 Iowa players have been named academic all-America 38 times.

The returning offensive starters include leading rusher Mark Weisman (159-815-8 TDs) and leading receiver Kevonte Martin-Manley (52-571-2 TDs). Damon Bullock was second in rushing (135-513-3 TDs), while tight end C.J. Fiedorowicz was third on the team in receptions (45-433-1 TD).

The offensive line returns seven lettermen, and all seven have started games during their Iowa careers. Right tackle Brett Van Sloten started all 12 games in 2012, while left tackle Brandon Scherff started seven games before a season-ending injury. Austin Blythe started nine games as a redshirt freshman, earning Freshman All-America honors, and Conor Boffeli started the final three games of the season. Others who have started games include Andrew Donnal, Nolan MacMillan and Jordan Walsh.

The defense returns its three leading tacklers from 2012 in linebackers Anthony Hitchens, James Morris and Christian Kirksey, a trio of seniors. A number of Iowa's defensive linemen gained the most experience of their careers in 2012, and only added to that experience throughout the spring.

Iowa's secondary returns three starters in cornerback B.J. Lowery and safeties Nico Law and Tanner Miller. The Hawkeyes will be without cornerback Micah Hyde, who earned first team All-Big Ten honors and was named the winner of the 2012 Tatum-Woodson Defensive Back of the Year Award. Hyde, selected by Green Bay in the fifth round of the 2013 NFL Draft, also handled punt returns the past two seasons.

The Hawkeye special teams return PK Mike Meyer, punter Connor Kornbrath and long snapper Casey Kreiter. Senior WR Jordan Cotton ranked as one of the top kick return specialists in 2012, leading the Big Ten and ranking 13th in the nation with an average of over 28 yards per return.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"The players worked hard through the winter and did the same during spring practice. We are improving, we're a better team than we were at the end of the season. That being said, we still have the opportunity to improve throughout camp, and it's something we will have to do to meet the demands of the schedule we face."

"I look at the staff changes as a two-year process, which was triggered with Norm's retirement (following 2011 season). We have had a lot of re-positioning and re-staffing over the last couple of years. I think it all came together over the course of last spring; guys are working well together, they are comfortable in their roles, and the players have responded well to the new staff."

Here is a look at the Hawkeyes, position by position:

QUARTERBACK

Iowa must replace James Vandenberg, who started every game the past two seasons, taking every offensive snap in 2012. Vandenberg ranks among Iowa's top eight quarterbacks in a number of career statistical categories, including pass completions, attempts, passing yards, passing touchdowns and total offense.

Sophomore Jake Rudock (6-3, 200) has been with the program the last two seasons. Rudock enjoyed an outstanding prep career in Florida, leading his team to the Florida state title as a senior and a two-year record of 29-1.

Junior Cody Sokol (6-2, 205) joined the program for 2012 spring practice after two seasons at Scottsdale Community College and redshirted a year ago. He passed for over 3,800 yards as a sophomore at Scottsdale while earning all-conference and all-region honors.

Redshirt freshman C.J. Beathard (6-2, 195) made progress throughout his first spring practice. He led the state of Tennessee in completions, passing yards and touchdowns as a high school junior and senior.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"All three competed well throughout the spring. They have all been doing a good job since they arrived here, and all arrived at different times. With a group that is this young it is realistic to think they will look different once we get midway through August. We will let them compete and move forward from there."

"One factor, and this was true last year as well; we need to do a better job of supporting the quarterback position. The decision making, the things they do are important. But, it is also helpful if we can give them some tools, having an improved running game and more options to throw the football, those are team things. We are optimistic that the position will be better supported; they will have a better opportunity to be successful."

RUNNING BACK

Juniors Mark Weisman (6-0, 236) and Damon Bullock (6-0, 200) return after ranking first and second, respectively, in rushing yards last season. Weisman moved from fullback to running back and rushed for 815 yards (5.1 average) and eight touchdowns in 10 games. Bullock was limited to just six games due to injuries, but still rushed for 513 yards (3.8 average) and three touchdowns. Both Weisman (15-90-1 TD) and Bullock (18-167) are capable receivers.

Sophomore Jordan Canzeri (5-9, 180) returns after missing 2012 due to injury. He ranked second in rushing yards in 2011 (31-114) yards while seeing action in seven games in his first season. He started the Insight Bowl and led the Hawkeyes in rushing (22-58) and receptions (6-28-1 TD) against Oklahoma. Canzeri had a solid spring while returning from his injury.

Redshirt freshmen who will contend for playing time include Barkley Hill (6-0, 218) and Michael Malloy (6-0, 215). Hill made a solid impression last fall before an injury forced his redshirt season.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"Compared to a year ago, we appear to be in a better situation. We had a lot of concerns last August. Right now we have two good players we have seen play in game conditions, and they have played well. We're certainly excited about the potential Mark Weisman and Damon Bullock have. We hope they can build off what they started last year; they have both worked hard and practiced well."

"Jordan Canzeri was full speed this spring and practiced well, indicating he is ready to go. Mike Malloy did a good job when healthy at the end of spring. Mike has the potential to help us, which is the feeling we had for Barkley Hill last August, until his injury. Barkley was limited this spring, but he's a player we are anxious to see this August as well."

FULLBACK

Senior Brad Rogers (5-10, 230) will take a medical redshirt in what would have been his final season. Rogers has fought the injury bug throughout his career. Neither of the players currently on the depth chart have played fullback in a game for the Hawkeyes.

Those players include Adam Cox (5-11, 215) and Macon Plewa (6-2, 234), a pair of sophomores. Berkley Grimm (6-0, 230) is another sophomore who joined the Iowa program after spending one season at North Dakota State. Plewa saw action at linebacker and on special teams in 2012.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"Adam Cox did a great job this spring. He was really a pleasant surprise; he gives everything he's got out there and did a lot of things really well. Macon Plewa made the transition from linebacker and made a good showing for himself as well. Mark is as good a fullback as we've had; he's shown the ability to run the ball so we were able to move him to running back. We certainly have more flexibility in the depth and skills of the players at this spot."

TIGHT END

C.J. Fiedorowicz (6-7, 265) returns for his final season after starting all 12 games a year ago. The three-year letterman ranked third on the team in receiving with 45 receptions for 433 yards and one touchdown. Fiedorowicz has 61 career receptions for 600 yards and four touchdowns.

Additional lettermen at this position include junior Ray Hamilton (6-5, 252), and sophomores Jake Duzey (6-4, 245) and Henry Krieger Coble (6-4, 245). Krieger Coble (4-30-1 TD), Duzey (3-16) and Hamilton (2-20) all played in at least nine games a year ago.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"C.J. had a good spring. He is a big, physical player who just needs to continue to hone his skills. Like most players, do what you do better, pay more attention to detail. That is what you gain with experience. C.J. showed signs this spring of being on the right path. Ray Hamilton and Jake Duzey have continued to do a good job. Henry Krieger Coble and George Kittle are younger guys who continue to improve. As a group they are all different, are all improving and doing good things. This is a position we feel we have ability, experience and depth."

WIDE RECEIVER

Kevonte Martin-Manley (6-0, 205) returns for his junior season after starting all 12 games last season. He led the team in receptions (52-571- 2 TDs) and his two-year totals include 82 catches for 894 yards. He is one of five returning lettermen. Senior Jordan Cotton (6-1, 192) is the only other receiver with starting experience, and that was just one game. Cotton improved throughout 2012 and at the end of the year led the Big Ten and ranked 13th in the nation with a 28.2 average on kickoff returns.

Senior Don Shumpert (6-3, 200), and sophomores Jacob Hillyer (6-4, 205) and Tevaun Smith (6-2, 200) are the other returning lettermen, but the trio combined for just three receptions a year ago. Redshirt freshmen Riley McCarron (5-9, 182) and Cameron Wilson (6-1, 200) had bright spots during the spring.

The top loss from 2012 is Keenan Davis (47-571), a two-year starter.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"This is a position where we are inexperienced and young overall. Kevonte is our most experienced player. We liked the things we saw from Tevaun last fall and he continued to improve during the spring. We are curious to see how these other players are developing. Jacob Hillyer, Don Shumpert and Riley McCarron did some good things when healthy this spring. Can Jordan Cotton contribute offensively on a consistent basis? Those are questions we have going into August."

This is a position where younger players can play effectively. It's realistic to think one or two of the newcomers may help us. We'll try to identify which guys are most capable as early as possible and get them integrated."

OFFENSIVE LINE

The biggest losses in the offensive line are with the graduation of James Ferentz and Matt Tobin. Ferentz started all 38 games over the past three seasons at center, earning All-Big Ten recognition the past two years. Tobin split time at both left guard and left tackle in 2012. Tobin started 22 games over his final two seasons, earning honorable mention All-Big Ten honors as a senior.

Seven lettermen return, and all seven have at least one game of starting experience. Brett Van Sloten (6-7, 300) returns for his final season after starting all 12 games at right tackle a year ago. Junior Brandon Scherff (6-5, 315) started the first seven games at left tackle last season. He was injured in the seventh game of the year and missed the remainder of the year. Van Sloten and Scherff give the Hawkeyes a pair of talented tackles.

Sophomore Austin Blythe (6-3, 300) earned freshman All-America honors while starting nine games at right guard in 2012. Blythe made the move to center and is listed as the starter heading into the fall. Others who have started at least one game include seniors Nolan MacMillan (6-6, 294) and Conor Boffeli (6-5, 295), junior Andrew Donnal (6-7, 305) and sophomore Jordan Walsh (6-4, 290). Boffeli (left) and Walsh (right) are listed as the starting guards. MacMillan missed spring practice due to injury.

Players who will battle for spots on the depth chart include Eric Simmons (6-2, 295), Cole Croston (6-5, 250), Mitch Keppy (6-5, 295), Reid Sealby (6-4, 275), Ryan Ward (6-5, 290), Drew Clark (6-4, 288) and Tommy Gaul (6-3, 277). Simmons played one season at Iowa Western Community College before redshirting at Iowa last year. Croston, Keppy, Sealby and Ward are redshirt freshmen, Clark is a senior and Gaul a junior.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"The entire group has worked hard and we answered a couple of questions in the spring. We feel good about our tackles in Brett and Brandon; they are experienced, older players who are strong leaders. We were pleased with Austin Blythe's transition to center; it was good to see him take a big step. He played a lot of football last year and looked a lot more comfortable and in control out there this spring. Conor Boffeli also took a big step. He got thrown in there at the end of last year and did a good job. He probably performed as well as anybody over the course of the spring. Jordan Walsh and Andrew Donnal, both have played, but both have had injuries. They were healthy this spring and showed progress. My guess is they will both look even better in August."

Nolan MacMillan is healthy and working full speed this summer. Hopefully he can enter the mix in August. Eric Simmons, Ryan Ward and Mitch Keppy are young guys that we can hopefully keep moving forward."

DEFENSIVE LINE

Iowa returns five lettermen in the defensive line, including two players who started all 12 games in senior Dominic Alvis (6-4, 265) and junior Louis Trinca-Pasat (6-3, 290). The losses include end Joe Gaglione and Steve Bigach, who played both end and tackle.

Trinca-Pasat missed spring practice due to off-season surgery. He recorded 40 tackles last season, including four tackles for loss. He also had a fumble recovery and blocked a field goal. Alvis recorded five tackles for loss and three sacks among his 31 tackles. He added three pass break-ups; one caused fumble and one fumble recovery.

Additional lettermen include sophomore Darian Cooper (6-2, 280) and juniors Carl Davis (6-5, 315) and Mike Hardy (6-5, 275). Cooper started two games and totaled 34 tackles while playing in all 12 games. He also recorded two pass break ups and a recovered fumble. Each of the three made progress during spring practice.

Others who saw action last season include sophomores Riley McMinn (6-7, 260), Drew Ott (6-4, 265) and Melvin Spears (6-2, 265). McMinn and Spears redshirted in 2011, while Ott played last season as a true freshman.

Redshirt freshmen Jaleel Johnson (6-4, 310) and Faith Ekakitie (6-3, 287) added valuable reps in the spring.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"I think we knew going in to last year we were going to be young with just the two seniors. We are more experienced this year, but still relatively young. Dominic is the only guy who had played a lot before last season. Louis played well last season but missed spring practice due to injury. Carl had a very good spring and is continuing to grow and progress; Darian Cooper played some last year, he got a lot of work with Louis being out and had a good spring. I thought Jaleel Johnson and Faith Ekakitie did a good job this spring coming off their redshirt year. Drew, Mike and Riley all did some good things this spring. We have the potential to have some quality depth at this position."

LINEBACKERS (Includes outside linebackers)

The Hawkeyes return their top three tacklers from last season in a trio of senior linebackers. Anthony Hitchens (6-1, 233) led the team with 124 tackles in 11 games. That figure led the Big Ten and ranked sixth nationally.

James Morris has started 29 games in his career, including all 11 in which he played last season. He collected 113 tackles and shared the team lead with nine tackles for loss. Morris ranked third in the Big Ten in tackles and 29th in the nation. Morris and Hitchens each earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors.

Christian Kirksey has started 25 straight games over the past two seasons. He had 95 tackles a year ago while leading the Big Ten and ranking second in the nation with four fumble recoveries. Kirksey shared the team lead with two interceptions and returned both for touchdowns.

Three additional lettermen include juniors Quinton Alston (6-1, 224) and Marcus Collins (6-0, 222) and sophomore Travis Perry (6-3, 232). Alston made one start a year ago, but the trio does not have an abundance of game experience. All three have seen action on special teams.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"Three guys have played a lot of football and have done a lot of good things and that experience was evident in the spring. All three improved; they each played better in the spring than they have played at any time they have been here, which was good to see. After that, we have a number of players who haven't played much, so that is our focus right now. Quinton Alston and Travis Perry have done a good job of distinguishing themselves and shown improvement. A number of younger guys will be expected to contribute on special teams; they need to improve and prepare as if they are going to play."

James Morris is a player who really performs at a high level, no matter the task. As a true freshman, in two weeks, he went from third team and not playing, to playing middle linebacker against a very good team on national television in prime time. He was in there quickly due to an injury, and really handled that well, which has been symbolic of his time here. In everything he does, James responds in a real positive way; academically, and as a football player. He has developed into a great leader and is totally invested. Christian Kirksey has also done a very good job the last two years and is a respected leader. Anthony Hitchens played very well all spring and looked very confident."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Iowa secondary returns three starters, but this is a position where a number of younger players will battle for playing time. Iowa lost just one starter in cornerback Micah Hyde, who was named the top defensive back in the Big Ten. But, several other senior defensive backs contributed on defense and special teams, including Greg Castillo, Tom Donatelli, Collin Sleeper and Jack Swanson.

The returning starters include cornerback B.J. Lowery (5-11, 193), free safety Tanner Miller (6-2, 207) and strong safety Nico Law (6-1, 200). Lowery and Miller are seniors and Law is a junior. Miller was fifth on the team with 69 tackles last season while starting all 12 games. Miller has 23 career starts and 152 career tackles. Lowery had nine starts and collected 50 tackles last season. Law moved into the starting line-up for the last four games and had 28 stops.

Additional lettermen in the secondary include junior John Lowdermilk (6-2, 207) and sophomores Sean Draper (6-0, 180) and Jordan Lomax (5-10, 195). Draper lettered as a true freshman in 2012. Lomax lettered as a true freshman in 2011 before missing last season due to injury. Lowdermilk has lettered in each of his two seasons, but has seen the majority of his action on special teams.

Three redshirt freshmen earned their way on to the depth chart during the spring and will provide depth to Iowa's special teams. That group includes Reese Fleming (6-0, 188), Anthony Gair (6-2, 200) and Ruben Lile (6-3, 210).

KIRK COMMENTS:

"B.J. and Tanner are both seniors who did a really good job this spring. Both had some ups and downs last season, so it was good to see them gain consistency and play well in the spring. We felt good about Jordan going into last year before his injury and he did a good job during the spring. Sean Draper and Reese Fleming are a couple of young guys who are competing at the cornerback position.

John Lowdermilk and Nico Law are in good competition at strong safety, while Ruben Lile and Anthony Gair are a couple of redshirt freshmen adding depth. Consistency is a key, as we experienced some ups and downs in the secondary a year ago. We need to move the younger guys along and get them ready to play. The group played well in the spring, but will have to keep moving fast in August."

SPECIAL TEAMS

Iowa returns placekicker Mike Meyer, punter Connor Kornbrath and long snapper Casey Kreiter. Meyer (6-2, 190) heads into his senior year after handling all placements in 2012. He made 17-21 field goals and all 25 PAT attempts, scoring 76 points to lead the team in scoring for a second straight year. He was honorable mention All-Big Ten and a semifinal candidate for the Lou Groza Award for the second straight year. Meyer has made a school-record 81 straight PAT kicks and is fifth in career scoring with 235 points. His 13 consecutive field goals a year ago rank among the top 10 streaks in Big Ten history, and the consecutive PAT streak is among the 10 longest as well.

Kornbrath (6-6, 240) took over the punting duties in his first college season and averaged 37.9 yards on 53 punts. He had a long of 61 yards and six punts of at least 50 yards. Ten of his punts were inside the 20 and opponents had 18 fair catches. Just one of Kornbrath's punts went for a touchback, although senior John Wienke did have 14 punts (37.8) that normally came inside the 50. Iowa opponents averaged just 4.4 yards on 22 returns. Sophomore Marshall Koehn (6-0, 195) will back up both Meyer and Kornbrath.

Iowa returns its long snapper in senior Casey Kreiter (6-3, 250), who has been perfect on his PAT and field goal snaps the last two years. A new holder must be found.

Hyde returned punts for the last two seasons and must be replaced. He averaged 7.4 yards on 16 returns in 2012. Cotton took over as Iowa's primary kick returner a year ago with excellent results. Cotton averaged 28.2 yards on 19 returns, including a 92-yard touchdown vs. Penn State. He led the Big Ten and ranked 13th nationally.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"We are counting on Mike to have a great year; he's very experienced and has an excellent attitude. Connor had a bit of a roller coaster as a first year guy. When you invest in a young player, you are banking on improvement at every turn. He did a nice job in the spring and we look for his consistency to improve. Casey has done a good job with the snaps and as a leader for this group and we look for that to continue.

It's exciting to have Jordan back after he emerged as a legitimate threat on kick returns last year. Time will tell on replacing Micah, but I feel we have some good candidates. With former players such as Micah and Ed Hinkel, we have had reliable punt return guys with good judgment, which is critical. The kicking game starts with protection, and on the receiving end you have to field the ball."

THE SCHEDULE

Iowa will play three of its four non-conference games in Kinnick Stadium, beginning August 31 against Northern Illinois. Iowa edged the Huskies (18-17) last season in Chicago. Northern Illinois then won 12 straight games, including its league championship for the second straight season, before falling to Florida State in the 2013 Orange Bowl.

Iowa will also host Missouri State (Sept. 7) and Western Michigan (Sept. 21), while traveling to Ames to meet Iowa State (Sept. 14) in the annual Iowa Corn Cy-Hawk Series contest. The schedule features two open weeks (Oct. 12 and Nov. 16).

The Big Ten schedule features new opponents in Wisconsin and Ohio State, while the Hawkeyes do not face Penn State and Indiana. Iowa has not played the Badgers and Buckeyes since 2010, when both teams escaped Kinnick Stadium with narrow wins (Wisconsin won 31-30, while Ohio State defeated Iowa 20-17).

Iowa begins league play at Minnesota (Sept. 28) before hosting Michigan State. Iowa travels to Ohio State (Oct. 19) following the first open week.

Northwestern (Oct. 26) and Wisconsin (Nov. 2) visit Iowa City on consecutive weekends, followed by a trip to Purdue (Nov. 9) and the second open date on the schedule. A home contest against Michigan (Nov. 23) and a Friday date at Nebraska close out the season.

Nine of Iowa's 12 opponents played in bowl games a year ago, while Ohio State posted a perfect 12-0 regular season record (OSU was not eligible for post-season play).

KIRK COMMENTS:

"Northern Illinois was in the Orange Bowl a year ago, which is a real credit to their program. They have done a wonderful job over an extended period of time. They were a very good team last year, they proved that, and we expect that to be a big challenge to start the season.

We're coming off a season that was disappointing; every game is really important. All we have to do is look back to the non-conference portion of our schedule last year, which is not the kind of start you want. Those first four games are all going to be challenging. We need to treat each of them as such. Conference play is conference play, it is always going to be challenging and this year will be more of the same. Two bye weeks will be a little different, but they appear to come at a good time on the schedule."

HAWKEYE HISTORY

Iowa has played 1,167 games since beginning football in 1889. Iowa's overall record is 598-530-39 (.529). The juniors include WR Kevonte Martin-Manley, OL Brandon Scherff and RB Mark Weisman. The sophomore class is represented by OL Austin Blythe, DB Jordan Lomax, DL Drew Ott and QB Jake Rudock. The redshirt freshmen are QB C. J. Beathard and OL Ryan Ward.

4 HAWKEYES EARN PRESEASON HONORS

Four Hawkeyes were named to Athlon Sports' Preseason All-Big Ten teams. WR Jordon Cotton (first team/kick return specialist), LB James Morris (second team/defense), PK Mike Meyer (second team/kicker) and OL Brandon Scherff (third team/offense) each earned preseason accolades from Athlon Sports.

Cotton, a senior, led the Big Ten last season and ranked 14th nationally in kickoff returns, averaging 28.2 yards in 19 attempts. The Mount Pleasant, Iowa, native had a 92-yard kickoff return against Penn State, which ties as the 10th longest return in program history. Cotton was a first team All-Big Ten kick returner by CollegeSportsMadness.com last season. Cotton also had 12 receptions for 172 yards and a touchdown in 2012.

Morris, a senior from Solon, Iowa, was named to the second All-Big Ten defensive team. Last season he ranked third in the Big Ten and 31st in the nation in tackles per game (9.4). He ranks 16th in career tackles (293). He was named a Permanent Team Captain in 2012 while earning the Hayden Fry "Extra Heartbeat" Award and the Players Choice Award on defense. Morris earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors as a sophomore and junior after being named Freshman All-America by CollegeFootballNews.com as a freshman. Morris has been a starting linebacker for the Hawkeyes since his true freshman season in 2010.

Meyer - a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award the past two seasons - is a second team All-Big Ten selection. Hailing from Dubuque, Iowa, Meyer ranks fifth in career scoring with 235 points. His 45 career field goals are tied for fifth best in school history. Meyer has made 81 consecutive PATs to set a school record. Meyer made 17-of-21 field goals in 2012, and was named a permanent team captain.

Scherff, a junior from Denison, Iowa, is an All-Big Ten third team selection. He started seven games at left tackle last season before missing the remainder of the season due to injury. Scherff played every offensive down in Iowa's first six games before suffering a season-ending injury in the first quarter against Penn State.

FERENTZ FOURTH IN LONGEVITY

Now in his 15th season as Iowa's head football coach, Kirk Ferentz ranks fourth in longevity among FBS head coaches. Ferentz is first among Big Ten coaches and nationally ranks behind Virginia Tech's Frank Beamer, Larry Blakeney of Troy and Mack Brown of Texas. Ferentz is tied for fourth with Bob Stoops of Oklahoma.

COACHING STAFF CHANGES

Four new faces join the Hawkeye coaching staff this season. Bobby Kennedy will serve as the Hawkeyes' wide receivers coach; Jim Reid will work with the Hawkeye defense; Chris White will coordinate special teams while also coaching the running backs; DJ Hernandez will coach the tight ends.

Kennedy coached wide receivers at Colorado the past two seasons. The Colorado native has 22 years of coaching experience on the collegiate level. Prior to coaching at Colorado, Kennedy was on the same coaching staff as Greg Davis, Iowa's offensive coordinator, at Texas (2004-10). Kennedy's other coaching stops include six major college programs.

Reid joins the Iowa staff after serving as associate head coach and defensive coordinator at Virginia the past three seasons. He has more than 30 years coaching experience on the collegiate and professional levels. Reid has served as a head coach on the college level for 17 seasons. He has been the head coach at Virginia Military Institute (2006-07), Massachusetts (1986-91) and Richmond (1995-2003). Reid joined the Virginia staff after spending the 2008 and 2009 seasons as outside linebackers coach for the Miami Dolphins.

White spent the previous four years on the coaching staff of the Minnesota Vikings. Prior to his four seasons with the Vikings, White coached on the collegiate level for 17 years. White joined the Vikings after a nine-year stint at Syracuse.

Hernandez joins the Hawkeye coaching staff as a graduate assistant, where he will coach the tight ends. Hernandez served as an offensive graduate assistant a year ago at Miami, where he worked primarily with the Hurricane receivers and special teams. Prior to joining the staff at Miami, Hernandez was the quarterbacks coach at Brown University in 2011, helping that program post a 7-3 record. He also assisted with special teams at Brown.

RETURNING STARTERS

Based on its usual starting line-up, Iowa could return 14 starters for the 2013 season, including eight on defense and six on offense, plus PK Mike Meyer and punter Connor Kornbrath.

The returning starters on defense include DL Dominic Alvis, DL Louis Trinca-Pasat, LB Anthony Hitchens, LB Christian Kirksey, LB James Morris, CB B. J. Lowery, FS Tanner Miller and SS Nico Law.

The returning starters on offense would include WR Kevonte Martin-Manley, TE C. J. Fiedorowicz, OL Austin Blythe, OL Brandon Scherff, OL Brett Van Sloten, and RB Mark Weisman. RB Damon Bullock, who started five games, also returns.

IOWA LIKES STARTING ON OFFENSE

Iowa has started the game on offense in 143-of-174 games under Kirk Ferentz. The Hawkeyes started on offense eight times in 2012: Northern Illinois, Central Michigan, Minnesota, Michigan State, Penn State, Indiana, Purdue and Michigan; Iowa started on defense against Iowa State, UNI, Northwestern and Nebraska. Iowa is 16-15 in the games it has started on defense under Ferentz.

CLOSE GAMES THE NORM FOR IOWA

Iowa led the country with six regular season games decided by three points or less (2-4), including two contests decided by one point (1-1) a year ago.

Iowa has played 17 games decided by three points or less since 2009. The Hawkeyes went 4-1 in those games in 2009, 1-3 in 2010, 0-2 in 2011 and 2-4 in 2012.

Iowa ranks among the nation's best in fourth quarter comebacks since 2009. The Hawkeyes mounted their ninth comeback when trailing in the fourth quarter, since 2009, at Michigan State on Oct. 13, winning in double overtime. Michigan State leads the nation with 10 comeback wins, while Iowa ties Minnesota, Ohio and Wyoming with nine wins after trailing at any point in the fourth period, since 2009.

IOWA NOTES

- Kirk Ferentz has amassed a record of 100-74 in 14 years as Iowa's head coach, collecting win No. 100 at Michigan State on Oct. 13.
- Iowa has sold out Kinnick Stadium 61 of the last 64 games, including six of seven contests in 2012.
- Iowa ranks ninth in the country in consecutive contests without a missed or blocked PAT (30 games).
- Iowa meets Northern Illinois in the season opener for the second-straight year. The Hawkeyes edged the Huskies a year ago at Soldier Field in Chicago, 18-17. The last time Iowa competed against the same team in consecutive openers was Iowa State in 1983 and 1984; Iowa won both of those contests, 51-10 and 59-21, respectively.

MEYER GETS HIS KICKS

Senior PK Mike Meyer earned Big Ten Special Teams Player and Lou Groza Star of the Week accolades twice in 2012. Meyer was named honorable mention All-Big Ten by both league coaches and media. He first was recognized after his performance against NIU in the opener and second, in Iowa's win at Michigan State. Meyer also earned CFPA honorable mention weekly recognition after the NIU, Central Michigan and Michigan State contests.

Meyer connected on 17-of-21 field goal attempts in 2012. His streak of 13 consecutive field goals made was snapped vs. Penn State (Oct. 20), missing kicks from 49 and 37 yards.

Meyer's 50-yarder against Northern Illinois, tied his career long (at Iowa State, 2011). He made four treys against NIU and Michigan State, which matches his career high (at Iowa State, 2011 and at Indiana, 2010). His five attempts vs. NIU ties Iowa's single-game record, which he also shares (at Indiana in 2010).

Meyer ranked eighth in Big Ten kick scoring (6.3) and ranks 27th in the country in field goals made per game (1.42). He ranks fifth on Iowa's career scoring list with 235 points. He has made 45-58 (.776) career field goal attempts. Meyer is 33-38 (.868) from kicks 39 yards and closer; 10-16 (.625) from attempts 40-49 yards; and 2-4 (.500) from kicks 50 yards or farther.

The native of Dubuque, Iowa, has made 81 consecutive PAT attempts, which is a school record. His four straight PAT's against Central Michigan helped him surpass All-Pro Nate Kaeding's previous record of 60 straight. Meyer's last PAT miss was in a 37-6 win over Michigan State on Oct. 30, 2010 in Iowa City.

LINEBACKING DUO RETURNS

Iowa's linebacker duo of Anthony Hitchens and James Morris ranked second in the country behind Houston's Derrick Mathews and Phillip Steward (254) in total tackles a year ago. The duo returns for their senior seasons. Hitchens and Morris combined for 237 total stops. Both Hitchens and Morris earned honorable mention All-Big Ten recognition.

Hitchens ranked sixth in the nation in tackles per game (11.3). Hitchens was tabbed CollegeSportsMadness' Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week on Oct. 14 after his performance at Michigan State. He played in all but one game in 2012 (at Michigan).

Hitchens posted double-digit tackles seven times in 2012. He notched tackle No. 100 for the season at Indiana. Hitchens finished the season ranked first in the Big Ten in tackles.

Hitchens was credited with eight stops vs. Purdue and 10 against Nebraska. The junior amassed 19 tackles, including one for loss, against Iowa State. The 19 tackles are the most by a Hawkeye since LB Abdul Hodge had 22 vs. Illinois on Oct. 1, 2005. He shared game-high tackle honors with 14 against Central Michigan, while he amassed a game-high 12 stops in Iowa's win over Minnesota. Hitchens registered a game-high 15 tackles at Michigan State.

Morris, who was on the preseason Bednarik, Butkus and Rotary Lombardi award watch lists, earned honorable mention recognition from the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) for his play vs. Iowa State.

Morris ranked third in the Big Ten and 29th nationally in tackles (9.4). He began the 2012 season with eight tackles in the win over NIU, including one tackle for loss, and had eight stops in Iowa's win over UNI. Morris registered double-digit tackles seven times in 2012 (Iowa State, Central Michigan, Minnesota, Michigan State, Penn State, Purdue and Nebraska), including six of the last nine contests. He had 12 tackles against Central Michigan, Iowa State and Penn State; 11 against Purdue; and 10 vs. Minnesota and Michigan State.

Morris is the 66th Iowa player to reach the 200-tackle plateau. He has 293 tackles (127 solo, 166 assists) to rank 16th in school history.

Against Iowa State, the Solon, Iowa, native totaled 12 tackles, including one for loss, intercepted his second career pass at the goal line (49 yard return) and recovered his first career fumble.

Morris earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors from both league coaches and media in 2011 as well. He tied for the team lead in tackles (110 in 12 games) and ranked fifth in the Big Ten and 37th in the nation. Morris recorded 52 solo stops and 58 assists, along with one pass interception, in 12 games.

Iowa's depth chart for final game of the 2012 season. Players listed in bold do not return for the 2013 season.

SEASON RECAP

Iowa posted a 4-8 overall record in 2012, including a 2-6 mark in Big Ten play. The Hawkeyes were the only team in the nation to play in six games decided by three points or less during the regular season, posting a 2-4 mark in those games. Iowa had two games decided by a single point (1-1) and won at Michigan State in overtime. In two losses, at home to Central Michigan and Purdue, the visitors scored the winning points on a field goal on the final play.

The Hawkeyes played nine games against teams that were selected for bowl games, in addition to an eight-win Penn State team. Three of Iowa's non-conference opponents competed in bowl games.

Iowa started the season with an 18-17 win over Northern Illinois in Chicago, scoring the winning touchdown late in the fourth quarter against a NIU team that would win its next 12 games while earning an invitation to the Orange Bowl. That was followed by a close loss to Iowa State (9-6) and a win over Northern Iowa (27-16). Iowa concluded non-conference action with a last-second 32-31 loss to Central Michigan.

The Hawkeyes started fast in Big Ten play, earning a win over previously undefeated Minnesota (31-13) and the double-overtime win at Michigan State (19-16). Iowa then lost its final six games, including three-point losses to Indiana and Purdue, and a 13-7 decision to 14th-ranked Nebraska in the season finale.

Senior DB Micah Hyde led the Iowa defense by earning the Tatum-Woodson Award as the top defensive back in the Big Ten. Hyde was a first team All-Big Ten selection, while senior center James Ferentz earned second team honors. Those earning honorable mention recognition included junior kicker Mike Meyer, junior tight end C. J. Fiedorowicz, junior linebacker Anthony Hitchens, junior linebacker James Morris, senior offensive lineman Matt Tobin and senior defensive end Joe Gaglione.

Junior linebackers Anthony Hitchens led the team in tackles (124), while junior linebacker Christian Kirksey was third in tackles (95) had two pass interceptions and four recovered fumbles. Kirksey returned both of the interceptions for touchdowns.

The Iowa offense was led by sophomore running backs Mark Weisman and Damon Bullock. Both battled injuries throughout the season. Weisman played in 10 games and rushed for 815 yards and eight scores. Bullock saw action in six games, rushing for 513 yards and three touchdowns. Quarterback James Vandenberg passed for 2,249 yards and seven touchdowns while also scoring four rushing touchdowns. The 2,249 yards passing ranks 16th in Iowa single-season history.

The walk-on fullback delivered before sustaining an injury, rushing for 661 yards and eight touchdowns on 114 attempts (5.8 avg.).

Weisman ranked eighth in Big Ten rushing (81.5 avg.). His 5.1 average per carry tied for second among league running backs.

Weisman saw limited action vs. Penn State and Northwestern, but did not play against Indiana and Purdue. The sophomore suffered an ankle injury, in overtime, at Michigan State. He rushed only five times for nine yards vs. Penn State and 21 yards on nine carries at Northwestern, playing in just the first two quarters in each contest.

Weisman rushed for 113 yards and three scores against UNI and a career-best 217 yards and three touchdowns versus Central Michigan. The 217 yards tie for the eighth-best rushing total in Iowa single-game history. In the Big Ten opener against Minnesota, he carried the ball 21 times for 177 yards (8.4 avg.) and a score. Weisman rushed 26 times for 116 yards and a score at Michigan State.

Weisman, who earned honorable mention CFPB honors against Central Michigan and Minnesota, was one of only six Big Ten players to rush for 100+ yards in four games in 2012.

Weisman scored all three of Iowa's touchdowns against UNI; two 1-yard scores and one 2-yard run. It marked the first time a Hawkeye rushed for three touchdowns in a game since Adam Robinson against Eastern Illinois (Sept. 4, 2010). Weisman tallied three of Iowa's four touchdowns against Central Michigan, scoring from five, 12 and 34 yards out. He added an 8-yard scoring run against Minnesota and a 5-yarder at Michigan State.

FIEDOROWICZ LED RECEIVERS

Junior TE C. J. Fiedorowicz led Iowa's receivers the last two games, reaching career high marks with eight receptions for 99 yards at Michigan. For his efforts he earned tight end honorable mention recognition from the College Football Performance Awards. He added six catches for 56 yards in the season finale against Nebraska. Fiedorowicz previously had five receptions in two different games, including earlier in 2012 against Penn State.

The eight receptions are the most by a Hawkeye since Keenan Davis had 10 receptions in a win over Pittsburgh in 2011. The eight catches are the most by an Iowa tight end since Tony Moeaki had 10 for 83 yards in a 2009 win over Northern Iowa. Fiedorowicz had four receptions for 27 yards on Iowa's first touchdown drive at Michigan.

Fiedorowicz ranked third on the team with 45 receptions for 433 yards and one touchdown to lead Iowa's tight ends. In 2011, he had 16 catches for 167 yards and three TD's. He was named honorable mention All-Big Ten by both league coaches and media.

STANDING STRONG

Iowa's defense posted solid numbers in 2012. The Hawkeyes ranked 13th in the country in turnover margin (+11); 27th in fumbles recovered (13); 33rd in scoring defense (23.8); 46th in turnovers gained (21); and 75th in passes intercepted (10).

Iowa's defense amassed 53 tackles for loss and forced 23 turnovers. Seven of the 23 overall takeaways were collected inside the red zone. Also, CB Greg Castillo picked off Michigan State QB Andrew Maxwell on the 14-yard line (Michigan State had not yet reached the red zone) in double-overtime to preserve a Hawkeye victory. The Hawkeye defense has collected at least one takeaway in 76 of its last 87 games, dating back to 2006.

IOWA NOTES

- The Hawkeyes tied for 25th in the nation with seven different defenders with an interception in 2012.
- Iowa's defense collected 10 interceptions in each of the last two seasons. Seven different Hawkeyes intercepted at least one pass in 2012, with Christian Kirksey, Tom Donatell and Greg Castillo collecting two each.
- LB Anthony Hitchens recorded seven games with double-digit tackles in 2012. Hitchens led the Big Ten and ranked sixth in the country in tackles (11.3). Hitchens did not see action at Michigan due to injury.
- QB James Vandenberg finished his career with a 32:15 touchdown-to-interception ratio.
- LB Christian Kirksey's eight tackles at Michigan put him at 200 career tackles. He became the third Hawkeye in 2012 (James Morris, Micah Hyde) and the 68th player to accomplish the feat in school history. Morris has 293 career tackles to rank 16th and Hyde has 240 to tie for 34th.
- Mark Weisman rushed for a combined 334 yards and six TD's against Northern Iowa and Central Michigan. He became the first Hawkeye to rush for 300+ yards and score 6+ times in a two-game span since Tavian Banks in 1997. Banks had a combined 517 yards and six TD's against UNI and Tulsa and 441 yards and eight TD's vs. Tulsa and Iowa State.
- The Hawkeyes played seven true freshmen in 2012: P Connor Kornbrath, CB Kevin Buford, CB Sean Draper, WR Tevaun Smith, LB Nate Meier, RB Greg Garmon and DL Drew Ott.
- Iowa had 15 different players catch at least one pass in 2012.
- Iowa utilized two punters in 2012: freshman Connor Kornbrath and senior John Wienke. Wienke, who was mainly used on short-field punts, had nine of his 14 punts downed inside the 20, including three on the 1-yard line (Northern Illinois, Central Michigan and Northwestern). Kornbrath punted 53 times for 2,010 yards (37.9 avg.). He had a career long 61-yard punt in the finale against Nebraska. Kornbrath was one of two rookie punters in the Big Ten in 2012 (Drew Meyer, Wisconsin).

KIRKSEY RANKED AMONG NATION LEADERS

LB Christian Kirksey ranked third on the team in tackles (95), first in fumbles recovered (4), and shared the team lead with two interceptions. The four fumbles recovered tied as second best in the country. Also, he returned his two interceptions for touchdowns (68 and 18 yards). He was one of only eight players in the country to return two or more interceptions for scores this season. Kirksey is the first Hawkeye since Micah Hyde to accomplish the feat. Hyde returned two picks for scores in 2010 (72 vs. Missouri and 66 vs. Michigan State).

COLLECTING INTERCEPTIONS

Iowa's defense has ranked among national leaders in causing turnovers in recent seasons. Since the start of the 2008 season, Iowa has collected 83 interceptions, a total that ranks among the best in the nation over that span. Iowa had 10 interceptions in 2011, with two of those being returned for touchdowns (89 yards by DB Shaun Prater and 98 yards by DB Tanner Miller). Iowa's defense also registered 10 interceptions in 2012 (two vs. Iowa State; one against UNI, Northwestern, Michigan State, Michigan and Indiana; three vs. Minnesota). The 10 passes intercepted ranked 65th in the country.

Two of the 10 thefts were returned for touchdowns, both by linebacker Christian Kirksey. Kirksey posted interception returns of 68 (Minnesota) and 18 yards (Indiana) in 2012. The interception return against Minnesota is the third longest in school history.

The Hawkeyes have had an interception return for a touchdown in each of the last five years, including four in 2010. Iowa has had an interception return for a score in 10 of the last 12 seasons and 10 of 14 seasons under Kirk Ferentz.

IOWAN CALLED THE SIGNALS

Senior QB James Vandenberg started all 12 games in 2012, 13 games in 2011 and 27 overall in his career.

Vandenberg was on four preseason watch lists (Davey O'Brien, Maxwell Award, Manning Award and CFPA Quarterback Trophy). He was named a Capital One District Six Academic All-American for the second straight year and is a two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree.

Vandenberg completed 223-389 passes for 2,249 yards and seven TD's in 2012. His 187.4 yards per game average ranked fifth in the Big Ten. The 2,249 yards passing ranks 16th in Iowa single-season history. Vandenberg also rushed for four scores, including two at Northwestern (Oct. 29).

Vandenberg completed 507-888 passes for 5,786 yards and 35 career touchdowns. He ranks seventh at Iowa in career passing yards and touchdowns.

Vandenberg completed 237-of-404 pass attempts for 3,022 yards and 25 touchdowns in 2011. He ranked third in the Big Ten in passing yards per game (232.5), fourth in total offense (237.2) and fifth in pass efficiency (138.5).

Vandenberg is a native of Keokuk and was the second quarterback from the state of Iowa under Coach Kirk Ferentz. Kyle McCann (Creston) led Iowa to victory in the 2001 Alamo Bowl, the first bowl win for Coach Kirk Ferentz.

Two native Iowans have led the Hawkeyes to Rose Bowl wins, including Kenny Ploen (Clinton) during the 1956 season and Randy Duncan (Des Moines) during the 1958 season. Both were first team All-Americans.

St. Ansgar native Matt Sherman led Iowa to a pair of bowl wins (1996 Alamo and 1997 Sun Bowl), while Iowa City native Paul Burmeister was Iowa's quarterback in the 1993 Alamo Bowl.

Additional Iowa natives who passed for over 1,500 yards, but never led Iowa in a bowl game, include Gary Snook (Iowa City, 1963-65), Ed Podolak (Atlantic, 1966-68, who ended his Iowa career as a prolific running back), Phil Suess (Des Moines, 1977-80), Randy Reiners (Ft. Dodge, 1996-99), Tom McLaughlin (Dubuque, 1975-77), Al DeMarco (Mason City, 1947-48) and Glen Drahn (Elkader, 1948-50).

BLYTHE EARNS FWAA FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICA HONOR

Redshirt freshman Austin Blythe was named Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America and Scout.com.

Blythe is a native of Williamsburg, Iowa. He played in 10 games, while starting nine at right guard. Blythe missed two games in the middle of the season due to injury before returning to the starting line-up for the final five contests.

Blythe used 2011 as a redshirt season. He joined the Hawkeye program after earning first team all-state honors as a junior and senior at Williamsburg HS. He was honorable mention on the Parade All-America football team as a senior and was a three-time state wrestling champion.

IOWA IN THE RED ZONE

Iowa was 30-38 (79%) in the red zone, scoring 18 TD's and 12 field goals. The Hawkeyes have scored on 174 of the last 204 (.853) red zone possessions (120 TDs and 54 FGs), dating back to the Michigan State game in 2008.

Hawkeye opponents were 38-48 (79%) inside the red zone. Iowa's defense collected six takeaways (five fumbles and one interception) inside the red zone in 2012. Iowa forced and recovered a red-zone fumble in three of the last six contests.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Iowa scored 48 points following 23 defensive takeaways. The 23 turnovers gained ranked 40th in the country. The Hawkeyes collected at least one takeaway in every game this season, except Central Michigan. The Hawkeye defense posted defensive scores in two of the final four games. DB Micah Hyde returned a fumble nine yards against Purdue (Nov. 10), while LB Christian Kirksey returned an interception 18 yards at Indiana (Nov. 3).

Iowa was without a takeaway at Michigan State (Oct. 13) until CB Greg Castillo intercepted QB Andrew Maxwell in the second overtime to preserve the Hawkeye road victory. Iowa's defense has collected at least one takeaway in 76 of its last 87 games, dating back to 2006.

Hawkeye opponents scored 24 points following 11 turnovers (eight interceptions and three fumbles). The Hawkeyes tied for fourth in the nation in fewest turnovers lost (11).

Iowa had no turnovers in six games (Northern Illinois, UNI, Minnesota, Northwestern, Purdue and Michigan). The Hawkeye offense had two interceptions against Iowa State and Nebraska (zero points allowed), and Indiana (touchdown), lost a fumble against Central Michigan (field goal), had an interception at Michigan State (touchdown), and lost a fumble and had two interceptions against Penn State (touchdown).

Iowa 18, Northern Illinois 17

Sept. 1, 2012, Soldier Field, Chicago

Iowa	3	3	3	9	--	18
Northern Illinois	0	10	7	0	--	17

GAME RECAP

Iowa scored nine unanswered points in the fourth quarter to complete an 18-17, comeback win over Northern Illinois at Soldier Field to open the 2012 season.

The Hawkeyes trailed, 17-9, heading into the final quarter. Iowa's first drive of the game covered 31 yards in 10 plays and was capped by a Mike Meyer 50-yard field goal, tying his career long. Meyer matched his career best with four field goals and tied Iowa's single game record with five field goal attempts. His efforts earned him co-Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week accolades.

Senior John Weinke's punt with 5:36 remaining pinned the Huskies at their own one-yard line and the Hawkeye defense forced a three-and-out. Iowa took over on the NIU 24-yard line, trailing by five, with 3:41 left. Sophomore Damon Bullock broke a 23-yard run on third down for Iowa's only touchdown of the game, giving the Hawkeyes an 18-17 advantage. Iowa would hold the Huskies without a first down on their final drive to seal the win.

Iowa's first drive of the game was an impressive 14 play, 58-yard march over 6:52 that resulted in the first of Meyer's four field goals. NIU responded in the second quarter with a Keith Harris seven-yard touchdown run. Meyer's 29-yard field goal with 4:23 remaining in the second half made the score 7-6, but NIU's Matthew Sims knocked in a 28-yard field goal for a 10-6 halftime lead.

Joe Gaglione forced an NIU fumble on its first drive of the third quarter, and the Hawkeyes capitalized eight plays later with another Meyer field goal to come within one at 10-9. NIU QB Jordan Lynch gave the Huskies an eight-point cushion with a 73-yard touchdown scamper before Iowa's fourth quarter comeback.

Bullock led Iowa's offensive attack, registering 30 carries for 150 yards and a touchdown. Senior James Vandenberg finished 21-33 for 129 yards, completing passes to six different receivers.

Iowa's defense held the Huskies to just 54 yards passing and 201 yards total offense. Iowa ran 30 more plays than NIU and dominated time of possession, racking up 38:42. James Morris and Anthony Hitchens each had eight tackles for Iowa, while Gaglione had six tackles, including three tackles for loss, one sack and a forced fumble.

GAME RECAP

Iowa forced four Iowa State turnovers, but only managed two field goals in a 9-6, home opening loss to the Cyclones in the annual Iowa Corn Cy-Hawk Series.

Iowa State opened the game with a 10-play, 75-yard drive that culminated with a 5-yard TD pass. The PAT was missed, giving the Cyclones an early 6-0 lead. Iowa marched down the field on its first drive, entering the red zone after a 34-yard reception by Keenan Davis. The drive stalled and the Hawkeyes settled for a 23-yard field goal from Mike Meyer.

Iowa forced the first turnover in the red zone, as Micah Hyde jarred the ball loose on the 3-yard line and Dominic Alvis recovered the fumble. The Hawkeyes couldn't capitalize, giving the ball back to Iowa State after a three-and-out. The Cyclones increased their lead on the following drive with a 22-yard field goal for a 9-3 advantage.

The teams traded interceptions to end the first half. Iowa State was driving late in the second quarter before Tom Donatelli recorded his first career pick to give Iowa the ball at its own 34-yard line with 1:41 remaining. James Vandenberg threw his first pick of the season four plays later, as the score stayed 9-3 at half.

The first five drives of the second half resulted in punts, before Iowa State drove into Iowa territory midway through the third quarter. Cyclone running back James White fumbled at the Iowa 14-yard line and the Hawkeyes rallied with a 12-play drive inside the Iowa State 5-yard line. Iowa once again had to settle for a field goal inside the red zone, trimming the deficit to 9-6.

Iowa State was close to putting the game away in the fourth, with first and goal at the Iowa 3-yard line. The Hawkeye defense once again produced a takeaway in the red zone, as James Morris intercepted a third-down pass at the goal line and returned it to midfield. However, Iowa's drive stalled and the Hawkeyes were forced to punt.

After another solid stop by the Iowa defense, the Hawkeyes took over at their own 10-yard line with 1:56 left in the game. Vandenberg led Iowa down to the Cyclone 32-yard line before throwing his second interception.

Vandenberg finished 20-42 for 236 yards and two interceptions. Bullock had 22 carries for 53 yards, while Davis had four catches for 75 yards.

Anthony Hitchens had a career-high 19 tackles, while Morris added 12. Each player had a tackle for loss, while Morris added a forced fumble and an interception.

GAME RECAP

Central Michigan scored nine points in the final 2:18 to edge Iowa, 32-31, in Iowa City.

Iowa took a 23-21 lead with 2:18 remaining on a 12-yard touchdown by Mark Weisman. Central Michigan responded with a seven-play, 64-yard drive, capped by a Titus Davis touchdown reception to trim the Hawkeye lead to 31-29. The ensuing two-point conversion failed, but the Chippewas recovered an onside kick with 45 seconds left and won the game on 47-yard field with three seconds remaining on the clock.

The Hawkeyes were led offensively by Weisman, who turned in his second three touchdown performance in as many weeks. Weisman finished the contest with 27 carries for 217 yards and scoring runs of five, 12 and 34 yards. The 217 yards tie Shonn Greene and Nick Bell for the seventh-most rushing total in a single game in Iowa history.

Iowa jumped out to an early 7-0 lead after recording its first passing touchdown of the season, a 10-yard strike from James Vandenberg to Kevonte Martin-Manley. Weisman's first touchdown of the day allowed Iowa to regain a 14-10 lead late in the first quarter.

Central Michigan put up 13 second-quarter points to take a 23-14 lead into the half. Weisman's second scoring run of the day made it 23-21 and a 46-yard field by Mike Meyer in the fourth quarter gave Iowa a one-point advantage at 24-23.

Vandenberg finished 16-of-25 with 215 yards and one touchdown, while Keenan Davis had six catches for 88 yards.

Iowa finished with 430 total yards of offense, including 215 rushing and 215 passing. Penalty yards hurt Iowa's chances, as the Hawkeyes were flagged nine times for a total of 106 yards.

Meyer set the Iowa school record for consecutive PAT's made, breaking Nate Kaeding's previous mark of 60.

Micah Hyde and Anthony Hitchens each had 14 tackles to lead the Iowa defense. The Hawkeyes collected eight tackles for loss, with Hyde, Hitchens, Tanner Miller, Joe Gaglione, Louis Trinca-Pasat and Carl Davis each picking up one full TFL.

GAME RECAP

Iowa outscored Minnesota 24-0 in the first half and never looked back en route to a 31-13 Big Ten-opening victory at Kinnick Stadium on Iowa's Homecoming to regain possession of the Floyd of Rosedale traveling trophy. The win was Iowa's fourth straight on Homecoming.

PK Mike Meyer scored the only points of the first quarter with a 44-yard field goal, his ninth straight make. RB Mark Weisman scored on an 8-yard run, his seventh score in three games, on the first play of the second period to give the Hawkeyes a 10-0 lead. Iowa scored touchdowns on its next two possessions as well. WR Jordan Cotton caught a 47-yard score from QB James Vandenberg on a flea-flicker, followed by a Vandenberg 1-yard QB sneak to give the Hawkeyes a 24-0 halftime cushion.

The Gophers scored their first points on a 9-yard TD pass from QB Max Shortell to WR Isaac Fruechte midway through the third period. Three Minnesota possessions later, LB Christian Kirksey intercepted a Shortell pass attempt and ran the theft back 68 yards for a touchdown. The interception return for a touchdown was the third longest in school history. Iowa has had an interception return for a touchdown in each of the last five years.

Shortell threw his second touchdown pass, this time from 1-yard out, in the final minute but failed the two-point conversion to make the final score 31-13.

Vandenberg completed 18-31 passes for 192 yards, increasing his career total to 4,527 yards and surpassing Kyle McCann for seventh on Iowa's career passing chart. Weisman finished with 177 yards on 21 carries (8.4 avg.), while WR Keenan Davis (six catches) and TE C. J. Fiedorowicz (two catches) each had 50 yards receiving.

The Hawkeye defense was stellar, collecting four turnovers (three interceptions and one fumble), registering three tackles for loss, including two sacks, and breaking up four passes.

Iowa was led defensively by LB Anthony Hitchens, LB James Morris and Kirksey. The trio combined for 27 tackles, two sacks, one fumble recovery and one interception, which was returned 68 yards for a score by Kirksey.

GAME RECAP

Iowa improved to 2-0 in Big Ten play with a thrilling 19-16, double-overtime win to spoil Michigan State's Homecoming. The victory gave Kirk Ferentz 100 wins at Iowa.

Iowa scored 10 fourth-quarter points to force overtime and sealed the win in the extra frame thanks to place kicker Mike Meyer and a strong defensive effort.

Michigan State led, 10-3, heading into the final quarter. Meyer converted his second field goal of the game with 14:08 left in the fourth period to trim the deficit to 10-6. After a Spartan field goal made the score 13-6, the Hawkeyes engineered a nine play, 68-yard drive, capped by a 5-yard touchdown run by Mark Weisman, to tie the game and force overtime.

Iowa won the toss and started on defense, holding the Spartans to a field goal on its first possession. Meyer responded on Iowa's offensive chance, nailing a 27-yard field goal to send the game to double overtime.

The Hawkeyes started on offense and Meyer drilled his fourth field goal, this time from 42 yards, to give Iowa a 19-16 lead. Meyer's four made field goals tied a career best for the Dubuque, Iowa, native.

Spartan quarterback Andrew Maxwell's pass on the second play of their double-overtime drive was tipped at the line by Louis Trinca-Pasat. The ball was then tipped by a Spartan wide receiver and cornerback Greg Castillo came down with the interception to secure the Hawkeye road win.

Michigan State took advantage of a Hawkeye turnover on the first drive of the game to take an early lead. Le'Veon Bell scampered for a 14-yard touchdown run after the Spartan defense recorded an interception in the first stanza.

Weisman went over 100 yards for the fourth consecutive game, finishing with 116 yards and a touchdown. QB James Vandenberg completed 19-of-36 passes for 134 yards.

Three Hawkeyes tallied double-digit tackles; Anthony Hitchens (15), Joe Gaglione (11) and James Morris (10). The Hawkeye defense collected two sacks and six tackles for loss.

After a stop by the Iowa defense, the Hawkeyes took over at their own 14-yard line with 1:08 left. GAME RECAP

Michigan scored 28 unanswered points to pull away in defeating Iowa, 42-17. It was Michigan's first win over Iowa in four meetings, dropping the Hawkeyes to 4-7 overall and 2-5 in Big Ten play.

The Wolverines recorded 513 yards of total offense behind Devin Gardner's 314 passing yards. Gardner was responsible for all six Michigan touchdowns, throwing for three and rushing for three.

Michigan took an early 7-0 lead with 8:27 left in the first quarter, but the Hawkeyes tied the game at the end of the first period. Senior QB James Vandenberg engineered a 14 play, 75-yard drive that ended with a 16-yard scoring strike to tight end Henry Krieger Coble. The touchdown was the first of Krieger Coble's career.

Gardner tallied his first passing touchdown of the game with 13:05 left in the second quarter, converting on a 3rd and 17 for a 37-yard score to Roy Roundtree. Iowa tacked on three more points with a Mike Meyer 27-yard field goal, making the score 14-10. The Wolverines then put the game out of reach, recording two touchdowns in the second quarter and adding two more in the third for a 42-10 advantage.

Iowa added a score late in the fourth quarter, when Vandenberg hit Mark Weisman for a 13-yard touchdown pass. The score was Weisman's ninth touchdown of the season and his first career receiving touchdown.

Weisman had 16 carries for 63 yards to lead Iowa on the ground. Vandenberg finished 19-of-26 for 181 yards and two touchdowns. T.E. C. J. Fiedorowicz registered career highs in receptions (8) and receiving yards (99).

Micah Hyde and Christian Kirksey each had eight tackles. Hyde intercepted his first pass of the season, and the eighth of his career, while adding a pass breakup.

GAME RECAP

Iowa ended the season with a tough, 13-7 loss at home to No. 14 Nebraska. Both teams battled adverse conditions, with temperatures dipping below 30 degrees and wind gusts over 30 miles per hour.

Iowa and Nebraska each scored on their opening drive of the game. The Cornhuskers put together a 16-play, 75-yard drive that consumed over eight minutes, culminating in a 26-yard field goal by Brett Maher. The Hawkeyes responded with a 12-play, 62-yard drive, capped by a one-yard quarterback sneak by James Vandenberg for a 7-3 Iowa lead.

The Hawkeyes forced two Nebraska fumbles in the second quarter, but were unable to convert the turnovers into points. Micah Hyde recovered a muffed punt, but Nebraska stopped Iowa on a fourth-and-one at the Cornhusker 39-yard line. One drive later, Louis Trinca-Pasat recovered a Taylor Martinez fumble, but Iowa was forced to punt seven plays later.

Nebraska trimmed Iowa's lead to 7-6 with a field goal on its opening drive of the second half. The Cornhuskers took the lead for good late in the third quarter when Rex Burkhead rushed for a three-yard score.

Connor Kornbrath's 61-yard punt pinned Nebraska at its own one-yard line in the fourth quarter, but Nebraska managed to burn 3:16 off the clock while gaining 32 yards. Iowa's next drive went three-and-out, and the final drive of the game ended with an interception.

Mark Weisman led Iowa in rushing with 91 yards on 29 carries. Vandenberg finished 11-of-24 for 92 yards and two interceptions. Tight end C. J. Fiedorowicz had six catches for 56 yards.

Linebacker James Morris had 13 tackles, including two for loss, while linebacker Christian Kirksey had 11 tackles, including one sack. Iowa's defense forced two turnovers, had two sacks and recorded five tackles for loss.

1889 - Played first intercollegiate game.

1960 - Shared Big Ten title with Minnesota and compiled 8-1 record. Recognized as national champions by three different researchers (Berryman, Boand, Litkenhous), and Sagarin.

1963 - Notre Dame game was cancelled following the assassination of President Kennedy.

1964 - Some 28 Iowa and Big Ten offensive records were broken despite 3-6 season.

1968 - Set Big Ten scoring and total offense marks. Ed Podolak rushed for an Iowa-record 286 yards (17 attempts) against Northwestern.

1972 - Iowa Stadium was renamed Kinnick Stadium in honor of Iowa's Heisman Trophy winner of 1939. AstroTurf was installed.

1981 - Coach Hayden Fry's third season produced a Big Ten co-championship and Rose Bowl berth, earning Iowa's first winning season in 19 years. DE Andre Tippett and P Reggie Roby were consensus All-Americans.

1982 - Fourth straight first division Big Ten finish and a 28-22 Peach Bowl win over Tennessee.

1983 - Offense breaks 35 school records on way to 9-3 mark and third straight bowl trip (Gator) under Coach Hayden Fry.

1984 - Played in a postseason bowl game for the fourth straight year, defeating Texas 55-17 in the inaugural Freedom Bowl. Shut out Michigan for the first time since 1929 and won first game in 28 years at Purdue.

1985 - Won a school-record 10 games enroute to the Big Ten championship and played in the Rose Bowl (vs. UCLA) for the second time in five seasons. Spent five weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation. QB Chuck Long (winner of the Maxwell Trophy and Davey O'Brien Quarterback Award) and Larry Station were consensus All-Americans.

1986 - Champion of the ninth annual Holiday Bowl with a 39-38 triumph over San Diego State. A 9-3 overall mark helped Hayden Fry's Hawkeyes win at least eight games for the sixth consecutive season.

1987 - Ten victories tied the school record and included Holiday Bowl triumph over Wyoming (20-19). Six-game winning streak to end the year earned Iowa its fifth consecutive Top 20 finish.

1988 - Iowa played North Carolina State in the Peach Bowl, the school's eighth straight postseason appearance. A 6-4-3 season set an Iowa record for ties. TE Marv Cook was a consensus All-American.

1989 - A natural grass playing surface (PAT) was installed in Kinnick Stadium.

1990 - The capacity of Kinnick Stadium was expanded to 70,220. Iowa earned its third Big Ten title and Rose Bowl berth under Hayden Fry, posting an 8-4 overall record. Iowa's "Road Warriors" earned the trip to Pasadena by defeating Michigan State, Michigan and Illinois, all on the road. Hawkeyes ended season ranked 18th nationally. RB Nick Bell was named Big Ten MVP.

1991 - Iowa tied the school record of 10 wins, posting a 10-1-1 record. The only loss came at the hands of Big Ten champion Michigan as the Hawkeyes were 7-1 in league play. The Hawkeyes made their third appearance in the Holiday Bowl, which ended in a 13-13 tie with BYU. DE Leroy Smith earned consensus All-America status and was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year. Iowa ended the season ranked 10th nationally by both the AP and CNN/USA Today.

1992 - Iowa appeared in its second Kickoff Classic and hosted No. 1 Miami (FL) in first night game ever played in Kinnick Stadium. Iowa's fifth place Big Ten finish was the 13th first-division finish for Iowa in 14 seasons under Hayden Fry.

1993 - Iowa closed the regular season with four straight wins to earn an invitation to the inaugural Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, TX. Iowa lost to California (37-3) in the bowl game and ended the season with a 6-6 record. Iowa's 21-3 win over Minnesota in the season finale not only assured the bowl invitation, but was also win No. 200 in the coaching career of Hayden Fry.

1994 - Iowa again closed the season fast, earning three wins and a tie in the last four games to post a 5-5-1 mark. The Hawkeyes fought back from injuries at the quarterback position to score 98 points in the final two games, wins over Northwestern and Minnesota. Five Iowa quarterbacks were injured during the year.

1995 - Following the trend of the past few seasons, Iowa closed fast, winning its final two games of the regular season to earn an invitation to the Sun Bowl. Iowa ended the year in fine fashion, racing past Pac-10 co-champion Washington 38-18 in the Sun Bowl and ending the year with an 8-4 record, including a 4-4 Big Ten mark. Iowa was ranked in the top 25 in the final polls by the Associated Press, UPI and CNN/USA Today.

1996 - Iowa posted a 9-3 record, including a 27-0 win over Texas Tech in the Builder's Square Alamo Bowl. The Hawkeyes posted a 6-2 Big Ten record, earning a tie for third place with Penn State. Iowa ended the season ranked 18th in the nation in both the AP poll and the CNN/USA Today coaches poll. PR Tim Dwight and DT Jared DeVries earned All-America honors and RB Sedrick Shaw rushed for over 1,000 yards for the third consecutive season.

1997 - If ever the Hawkeyes had a season that could have been, 1997 would be the year. Iowa posted a 7-5 overall record (4-4 in the Big Ten) and participated in the Norwest Sun Bowl, earning its third straight bowl invitation. But narrow road losses at national champion Michigan (28-24), Wisconsin (13-10) and Northwestern (15-14) put a damper on what could have been a great season. RB Tavian Banks, WR Tim Dwight and DT Jared DeVries earned All-America honors and Dwight led the nation in punt returns.

1998 - On November 25, 1998, Hayden Fry announced his retirement as head coach after a successful 20-year career with the Hawkeyes. Fry had a record of 143-89-6 at Iowa and a 232-178-10 mark over his 37 seasons as a college head football coach.

Iowa struggled to a 3-8 record on the field, with five of the eight losses coming to teams ranked in the final top 25. Three Hawkeye losses came at the hands of teams ranked in the top six in the country. Iowa was led on offense by three freshmen, as QB Kyle McCann led the team in passing, RB Ladell Betts led the team in rushing and WR Kahlil Hill led the team in receiving. Senior DT Jared DeVries earned consensus All-America honors.

1999 - Kirk Ferentz began a new coaching era as Iowa finished the season with a 1-10 record while facing what was regarded as the fourth strongest schedule in the nation. Three of Iowa's losses went down to the final play of the game, with the Hawkeyes allowing a score at Northwestern and failing to score from inside the 10-yardline in home losses to Indiana and Minnesota.

2000 - Iowa opened the season in the Eddie Robinson Classic against Kansas State on August 26, marking the earliest date ever for an Iowa football game. The Hawkeyes, facing the sixth-strongest schedule in the nation, posted a 3-9 overall record. The Hawkeyes won their first overtime game ever, 26-23 at Penn State, in double overtime. A late season 27-17 win over Northwestern forced the Wildcats to share the Big Ten title. Iowa finished strong, winning two of final three games to set the table for the success of 2001 and 2002.

2001 - Iowa opened the season with three straight wins and ended the season winning three of its final four games, including a 19-16 victory over Texas Tech in the Alamo Bowl. The Hawkeyes posted an overall 7-5 record and tied for fourth in the Big Ten with a 4-4 mark. All five of Iowa's setbacks came by less than 10 points. Iowa led the Big Ten in scoring (32.6) as Coach Kirk Ferentz led Iowa to a bowl win in just his third season.

2002 - Iowa posted a perfect 8-0 record in Big Ten play to earn a share of the conference title with Ohio State. After a 3-1 start in non-conference play, the Hawkeyes began league play with a 42-35 overtime win at Penn State and went on to earn the league title in Coach Kirk Ferentz' fourth year. Iowa posted a final mark of 11-2 after a loss to Southern California in the 2003 Orange Bowl in Miami, FL. Iowa earned its first-ever Bowl Championship Series invitation.

Ferentz earned Big Ten and national Coach of the Year honors, while 11 Hawkeyes were named first team all-Big Ten. QB Brad Banks placed second in the voting for the Heisman Trophy and was the Big Ten Conference MVP. Banks was also the Associated Press Player of the Year and earned the Davey O'Brien Award as the top quarterback in the nation. OL Eric Steinbach was the Big Ten Lineman of the year, while TE Dallas Clark earned the John Mackey Award and PK Nate Kaeding earned the Lou Groza award.

Iowa averaged over 37 points a game in leading the Big Ten in scoring for the second straight season, while the Hawkeye defense ranked fifth in the nation against the run.

2003 - For the first time in school history, Iowa won 10 or more games in consecutive seasons after posting a 10-3 mark in 2003, putting an exclamation mark on the season with a 37-17 win over Florida in the 2004 Outback Bowl.

Iowa's 21 wins over the past two seasons are the most ever for Iowa football in a two-year period. The Hawkeyes finished the season ranked eighth in the final polls, the first back-to-back top 10 finishes for Iowa football since the 1950's. Coupled with the 2003 Orange Bowl, Iowa also has played in January bowl games in consecutive seasons for the first time in the history of the program.

The Hawkeyes opened the season with four straight wins in non-conference play. After a loss at Michigan State, Iowa returned home for a 30-27 win over Michigan, handing the Wolverines their only loss in Big Ten play. After a loss at Purdue in early November, Iowa closed the regular season with wins over Minnesota and Wisconsin. The bowl win over Florida gave the Hawkeyes three straight wins over ranked opponents.

Offensive tackle Robert Gallery was named a consensus All-American and became Iowa's third Outland Trophy winner as the nation's top interior lineman. PK Nate Kaeding was also a first team All-American for the second straight season, becoming Iowa's all-time scoring leader while setting 14 school records during his career.

2004 - Winning its last eight games of the season, Iowa posted a 10-2 record, sharing the Big Ten Conference title for the second time in three seasons. The Hawkeyes defeated Wisconsin in Kinnick Stadium on the final day of the regular season to earn the title share with Michigan.

Playing in its third straight January bowl game, Iowa scored a thrilling 30-25 win over defending national champion LSU in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. The Hawkeyes scored the winning touchdown on a 56-yard pass from QB Drew Tate to senior WR Warren Holloway on the final play of the game.

Iowa started the season with a 2-2 mark before making its championship run. The win over Wisconsin increased Iowa's winning streak to 18 straight home games and 13 straight conference games, both school records.

Tate, DE Matt Roth, LB Chad Greenway and LB Abdul Hodge were named first team All-Big Ten, while Coach Kirk Ferentz was named Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons.

2005 - Iowa finished the 2005 season with a 7-5 record and in a third place tie in the Big Ten standings. A pair of heartbreaking, last minute losses to Michigan and Northwestern is all that separated Iowa from at least a piece of its third league title in four years. The Hawkeyes' success earned them their second Outback Bowl appearance in three years.

Despite a year of triumphs and disappointments, Iowa finished the year as one of only four teams in the nation to have played in January bowl games the last four years.

LB Chad Greenway, DB Jovon Johnson and DE Kenny Iwebema were named All-Big Ten first team, while LB Abdul Hodge, RB Albert Young and PK Kyle Schlicher earned second team accolades.

2006 - Iowa started the season winning five of its first six games and becoming a fixture in the nation's top 20. The second half of the season was just the opposite as injuries took their toll and the Hawkeyes dropped five of their final six regular season contests.

But, Iowa did well enough to get invited to its sixth straight bowl game and came excruciatingly close to an upset of the defending national champion Texas Longhorns in the Alamo Bowl, before succumbing (26-24). The game was played before the biggest sports crowd ever to witness a sporting event in the Alamodome. The game was also the most watched ESPN bowl game in the network's history. OL Mike Jones was named to the coaches first All-Big Ten team. OL Marshal Yanda, LB Mike Klinkenborg, TE Scott Chandler and DB Marcus Paschal were second team choices.

Iowa was the only team in the country to have three players (OL Mike Elgin, DB Adam Shada and LB Mike Klinkenborg) represented on the first academic All-America team.

2007 - Iowa finished the season with a 6-6 overall record. Iowa finished tied for fifth in the Big Ten with a 4-4 mark. After starting the season with a 2-4 record, Iowa won four of its last six and just missed being selected for a bowl game. The Hawkeyes were bowl eligible for the seventh straight season and finished in the Big Ten's upper division for the sixth time in seven years. Iowa broke the school record for fewest turnovers in a season (13).

DT Mitch King earned first team All-Big Ten accolades by the coaches and second team honors by the media. CB Charles Godfrey was recognized on the second team by the coaches and was an honorable mention honoree by the media.

Iowa's offense isn't making any excuses, but... at least 11 players who appeared on the spring, or early fall, two-deep are either off the roster or were injured for a significant amount of time. The Iowa offense could have looked much different with some of the following names on the two-deep: WR Andy Brodell, OL Dace Richardson, OL Rob Bruggeman, OL Bryan Bulaga, OL Alex Kanellis, TE Tony Moeaki, WR Colin Sandeman, WR Dominique Douglas, WR Anthony Bowman, WR Trey Stross and RB Shonn Greene.

2008 - Led by a great group of 15 seniors, Iowa won five of its last six games and earned a spot in the prestigious January 1st Outback Bowl against South Carolina, winning 31-10.

The 2008 Hawkeyes finished the season with a 9-4 record and were ranked 20th in both final major polls. The Outback Bowl champions became the fourth Iowa team in the last seven years to win at least nine games. The Hawkeyes also played in a January bowl game for the fifth time in seven years.

Along the way, running back Shonn Greene broke seven school records and three school individual bowl records en route to becoming a consensus All-American and won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. Greene also was named the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player. On the defensive side, Mitch King also earned All-America honors and was named Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year.

The Hawkeyes tied for fourth (5-3 league record) and wound up as the league's only winner in the bowl season. Iowa's four losses came by a combined 12 points.

Iowa ranked in the top 20, nationally, in six statistical categories (5th - Pass efficiency defense; scoring defense and fewest penalty yards; 9th - rushing defense; 12th - total defense; 19th - red zone defense).

2009 - The 2009 Hawkeyes will be remembered as one of the most entertaining, talented and successful teams in Hawkeye history. The 11 wins equal (2002) the program record for victories in a season. The regular season win total of 10 was achieved for only the fourth time. For the first time ever, the Hawkeyes won their first nine games of a season. And, for the sixth time in eight years, Iowa played in a January bowl game. And, more importantly, Iowa won a BCS caliber bowl game for the first time since 1959.

Iowa posted an 11-2 overall record and a 6-2 Big Ten mark, good enough for a second place tie with Penn State. The Hawkeyes won at least nine games for the fifth time in the last eight years won 10 games or more for the seventh time in school history.

In addition to Iowa's 24-14 win over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech in the FedEx Orange Bowl, the Hawkeyes posted road wins at Penn State, Wisconsin, Michigan State and Iowa State. An overtime loss at eventual league champion Ohio State was the only road blemish. A seven point home loss to Northwestern was Iowa's only other loss. The Hawkeyes posted four wins by three points or less for the first time in school history.

Another road block during the 2009 season was an unusually high number of injuries to several starters. The loss of two offensive linemen, tight end, quarterback, running backs, receivers, defensive backs and a linebacker were all part of the scenario Iowa's coaching staff had to deal with. All of the above mentioned positions lost starters for at least part of the season.

The Hawkeyes ranked seventh in both major polls at the conclusion of the season, the highest final ranking for the program since 1960. Individually, several Hawkeyes reaped the rewards of the successful season. Defensive end Adrian Clayborn was named MVP of the FedEx Orange Bowl. Coach Kirk Ferentz was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third time. Offensive tackle Bryan Bulaga was picked as the league's Offensive Lineman of the Year. He joined Dace Richardson (OL), Tony Moeaki (TE), Clayborn (DE), Pat Angerer (LB), Tyler Sash (DB) and Amari Spivey (DB) on the first All-Big Ten team. Six Hawkeyes were selected in the 2010 NFL Draft.

2010 - Iowa concluded the 2010 season with a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the Insight Bowl. The Hawkeyes earned their second straight bowl victory over a top-15 opponent and won three consecutive bowl games for the first time in school history. Iowa improved its bowl record to 14-10-1.

The Insight Bowl win over the Tigers marked Iowa's fourth 2010 victory over a ranked opponent, the most by an Iowa team since 2003. Iowa played seven ranked opponents in 2010, the most for the Hawkeyes under Kirk Ferentz.

Iowa posted a 7-5 regular season record, including a 4-4 mark in Big Ten Conference play. The Hawkeyes tied for fourth in the Big Ten race. The Hawkeyes placed in the first division of the Big Ten for the ninth time in the last 10 years.

Iowa's record came against one of the toughest schedules in the nation. In each of Iowa's five losses, the Hawkeyes were either tied or leading in the fourth quarter. The five losses came by a total of 18 points and the four league losses were by a collective 11 points. Iowa's most impressive wins were a 37-6 win over Michigan State, which shared the Big Ten title while posting an 11-2 overall record, and the Insight Bowl win over Missouri (10-3), which tied for the North Division title in the Big 12 Conference.

Freshman RB Marcus Coker was named offensive Player of the Game in the Insight Bowl, rushing 33 times for 219 yards and two touchdowns. Sophomore DB Micah Hyde was named defensive Player of the Game, as his 72-yard interception return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter provided Iowa's winning margin.

Four Hawkeyes earned first team All-Big Ten honors, including DE Adrian Clayborn, DB Tyler Sash, DB Shaun Prater and WR Derrell Johnson-Koulianos. Clayborn earned consensus All-America honors and was a finalist for both the Rotary Lombardi Award and the Ted Hendricks Award. Quarterback Ricky Stanzi was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award. Punter Ryan Donahue was one of three finalists for the Ray Guy Award.

Iowa's offense was led by senior WR Marvin McNutt, Jr., junior QB James Vandenberg and sophomore RB Marcus Coker. McNutt set single-season (1,315) and career (2,861) records for receiving yards and touchdowns (12 and 28). His 82 receptions tied the single-season record. Vandenberg threw for 3,022 yards and 25 touchdowns, completing 58.7% of his pass attempts. Coker's rushing total of 1,384 yards ranks fourth best for a single season at Iowa and he scored 15 touchdowns.

Senior DT Mike Daniels (13.5-63) and senior DE Broderick Binns (12-58) led the team in tackles for loss. Daniels also had nine QB sacks, while Binns had five sacks and eight pass break-ups. Junior CB Micah Hyde and sophomore safety Tanner Miller each had three interceptions and Hyde matched Binns with eight pass break-ups.

For the third straight year, Iowa had six players selected in the annual NFL draft, including Reiff, who gave the Hawkeyes a first round selection for the third straight year.

2012 - Iowa posted a 4-8 overall record in 2012, including a 2-6 mark in Big Ten play. The Hawkeyes were the only team in the nation to play in six games decided by three points or less during the regular season, posting a 2-4 mark in those games. Iowa had two games decided by a single point (1-1) and won at Michigan State in overtime. In two losses, at home to Central Michigan and Purdue, the visitors scored the winning points on a field goal on the final play.

The Hawkeyes played nine games against teams that were selected for bowl games, in addition to an eight-win Penn State team. Three of Iowa's non-conference opponents competed in bowl games.

The Hawkeyes started fast in Big Ten play, earning a win over previously undefeated Minnesota (31-13) and the double-overtime win at Michigan State (19-16). Iowa then lost its final six games, including three-point losses to Indiana and Purdue, and a 13-7 decision to 14th-ranked Nebraska in the season finale.

Senior DB Micah Hyde led the Iowa defense by earning the Tatum-Woodson Award as the top defensive back in the Big Ten. Hyde was a first team All-Big Ten selection, while senior center James Ferentz earned second team honors. Those earning honorable mention recognition included junior kicker Mike Meyer, junior tight end C. J. GAME RECAP

Switching from the mighty defensive role they played all season (which included four shutouts), Iowa put on a great offensive show to defeat Oregon State 35-19 in the 43rd Rose Bowl. It was the school's first bowl appearance. Iowa assumed an early lead on game MVP Kenny Ploen's 49-yard run. Ploen also completed 9-of-10 passes. Collins Hagler scored two TDs and totaled a game-best 85 rushing yards. Iowa played Oregon State during the regular season and had also won that encounter, 14-13. The Rose Bowl win was the Big Ten's 10th win in 11 games against its west coast opponents. Over 15,000 Hawkeye fans attended the game.

GAME RECAP

Washington's Jacque Robinson rushed for 142 yards and two touchdowns as the Huskies blanked Iowa 28-0 in the 68th Rose Bowl game. One of the key plays was late in the first half when Iowa tried to convert a fourth-and-seven situation at Washington's 40-yard line. Pete Gales' pass was incomplete, and the Huskies moved the ball downfield and scored with 0:19 left for a 13-0 halftime lead. Iowa's offense turned the ball over five times while Washington had just one turnover. The game marked the third bowl game in school history and the first in 23 years.

The 1990 Heisman Trophy winner passed for 350 yards in rallying the Cougars back from a 13-0 halftime deficit. Iowa built its lead on two touchdown runs by Mike Saunders. Saunders joined Iowa's exclusive 1,000-yard in a season club. He had 103 yards on 19 carries in the Holiday Bowl to give him 1,022 for the season and 1,476 career rushing yards. Iowa QB Matt Rodgers completed 19 of 28 passes for 221 yards. Jon Filloon caught a career-high seven passes for 107 yards in his final game as a Hawkeye. All-American defensive end Leroy Smith was injured in the first half and never returned to the Iowa lineup. BYU had a chance to win the game with under 30 seconds to play. The Cougars had a first down on the Iowa 18-yard line with the score tied. However, Detmer's final pass was intercepted by Carlos James at the goal line. Teddy Jo Faley led Iowa's defenders with 14 tackles, including 13 solo stops. The Hawkeyes finished the season ranked 10th in both the AP and CNN/USA Today polls with a 10-1-1 record.

Washington got on the board for the first time at the 8:37 mark of the third quarter when Shane Fortney hit Jerome Pathon on a 30-yard touchdown pass. Iowa fullback Michael Burger scored on runs of eight- and one-yard to increase the score to 38-6 before Washington added two late scores. GAME RECAP

In its first trip back to San Antonio since losing to California 37-3 in the inaugural 1993 Alamo Bowl, Iowa's defense put on a clinic in stopping the run - one runner in particular. Iowa's group of run-stoppers, headed by sophomore linebackers Matt Hughes and Vernon Rollins, held Doak Walker Award winner and 2,000-yard rusher Byron Hanspard to 64 yards rushing on 18 attempts. In the process the Hawkeyes shut down Texas Tech for a dominating 27-0 win. Hanspard's longest run of the evening was 17 yards, as Iowa controlled the line of scrimmage and limited the Red Raiders to 60 yards total rushing. The victory was Iowa's second shutout of the season (the Hawkeyes also blanked Wisconsin 31-0). And while Hanspard was held in check throughout, Iowa senior Sedrick Shaw was unstoppable as he rushed for 113 yards on 20 carries and one touchdown. Shaw's second touchdown run was impressive, as he broke three tackles enroute to the end zone. Matt Sherman led a consistent Iowa offense with 126 yards passing - 105 to wide receiver Tim Dwight. The Hawkeye ground attack churned for 217 yards. Hughes finished with eight tackles, while Rollins added five. Sophomore Jared DeVries finished with two sacks and five tackles, three for a loss. Shaw and DeVries were named offensive and defensive MVP's, respectively.

GAME RECAP

An incredible defensive effort by Arizona State, it picked apart Iowa's ninth-ranked offense and earned the Sun Devils a 17-7 win in the Norwest Sun Bowl. The Sun Devil offense overshadowed Iowa, as ASU rushed for 268 yards and compiled 377 yards total offense. RB Tavian Banks sparked the offense unit on Iowa's second possession, breaking loose for a 26-yard run to the ASU 30. Unfortunately, for Iowa, ASU held the nation's fourth-best rusher to only 52 yards in the game. In the second quarter ASU set a seven-play, 55-yard scoring drive into motion, and never looked back. The Sun Devils recovered an Iowa fumble late in the first half and added a field goal for a 10-0 halftime advantage.

Iowa was able to score on a six-play, 87-yard scoring drive, under the direction of quarterback Randy Reiners, late in the fourth quarter. LBs Raj Clark and Matt Hughes led the Iowa defense, each recording 12 tackles, while CB Ed Gibson added 11. Jared DeVries contributed nine tackles, two tackles for loss and one sack. Iowa punter Jason Baker was named Sun Bowl Special Teams MVP after averaging 48.9 yards per punt, including a Sun Bowl-record 76-yarder.

GAME RECAP

Nate Kaeding kicked a 47-yard field goal with 44 seconds to play in the game and defensive back Bob Sanders intercepted a Texas Tech pass in the endzone on the final play as Iowa defeated the Red Raiders 19-16 in the 2001 Alamo Bowl. The Hawkeyes ended the season with a 7-5 overall record with the bowl victory. The crowd of 65,232 marked the second largest crowd in Alamo Bowl history.

The Hawkeye drove 53 yards in eight plays for the final score of the game, which was the fourth field goal of the day for Kaeding. Texas Tech had tied the score at 16-16 with 2:05 remaining before Iowa's game winning drive. Iowa QB Kyle McCann accounted for most of the yardage in the final scoring drive. He completed three straight passes for 41 totals yards and then scrambled for 16 yards to the Tech 26-yardline to set up Kaeding's game winning kick.

Kaeding tied an Iowa record with the four field goals, which came from 36, 31, 46 and 47 yards. Iowa took an early 10-0 lead in the first half, using a ball control offense to keep the Red Raider passing attack on the sidelines. Tech got on the scoreboard on the final play of the half on a 50-yard field goal and tied the score at 10-10 on its first possession of the third quarter.

An interception by Iowa's Derrick Pickens led to an Iowa field goal for a 13-10 advantage and good field position led to Kaeding's 46-yard effort that put Iowa in front 16-10. Pickens was named the Outstanding Defensive Player of the Game, while RB Aaron Greiving earned that award for offense. Filling in for the injured Ladell Betts, Greiving rushed 25 times for 115 yards, including a one-yard scoring run for Iowa's only touchdown. McCann completed 19-26 passes for 161 yards, with no interceptions.

Along with the interception on the final play of the game, Sanders led the Iowa defense with 11 tackles. Grant Steen added eight stops and Benny Sapp had seven tackles and an interception. Iowa's defense held Texas Tech to just 80 net rushing yards.

GAME RECAP

Southern Cal's big second half lifted the Trojans past Iowa, 38-17 in the 2003 FedEx Orange Bowl. Iowa, which saw its nine-game winning streak come to an end, completed the season with an 11-2 overall record and an eighth place ranking in the final polls.

Hawkeye C. J. Jones opened the game by returning the kickoff an Orange Bowl record 100 yards, giving Iowa an early 7-0 lead. The Trojans quickly answered with a four-play, 79-yard drive that ended with a Justin Fargas four-yard run.

Iowa and USC each added 35-yard field goals before the half. Iowa had an opportunity to take the lead, but a seven-play, 41-yard drive stalled on the USC one-yard line as the half ended and USC blocked an Iowa field goal attempt on the final play.

USC controlled the second half by scoring touchdowns on its first three possessions. USC's defense stifled the Hawkeyes. Heisman Trophy winning QB Carson Palmer led USC by completing 21 of 31 passes for 303 yards and one touchdown. He was named the Orange Bowl MVP. Fargas became only the second Hawkeye opponent to eclipse 100 rushing yards as he gained 122 in 20 attempts. His rushing numbers included a 50-yard scoring scamper that marked the longest run against the Iowa defense all season.

QB Brad Banks completed 15-36 passes for 204 yards and one touchdown. Banks threw 103 consecutive passes without an interception before USC's Jason Leach picked one off in the fourth quarter. Banks also rushed eight times for 36 yards. His 423 rushing yards is an Iowa record for quarterbacks in a season.

WR Maurice Brown and TE Dallas Clark led the Iowa receivers. Brown had six receptions for 63 yards and a touchdown, while Clark tallied four receptions for 97 yards. Brown's 18-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter broke the school record for TD receptions in a season. Jones ran back four kickoffs for 169 yards, which is an Orange Bowl record and an Iowa bowl game record for return yards.

Defensive backs Bob Sanders and Derek Pagel led Iowa's defensive unit recording 13 and 10 tackles, respectively. The Iowa defense sacked Palmer four times, which included DE Matt Roth's team-leading 11th sack in the second quarter.

GAME RECAP

After falling behind 7-0 in the first quarter, Iowa scored 27 unanswered points en route to a 37-17 triumph over No. 17 Florida in the 2004 Outback Bowl. The victory was Iowa's first over the Gators and its first January bowl win since the 1959 Rose Bowl. After allowing an early Florida touchdown, Iowa scored on three of its next four possessions to end the half.

WR Maurice Brown caught a three-yard touchdown pass from QB Nathan Chandler to even the game at 7-7 late in the first quarter. PK Nate Kaeding converted a 47-yard field goal to give Iowa the lead, and the Hawkeyes followed with a Chandler five-yard scoring run. A 32-yard Kaeding field goal gave Iowa a 20-7 halftime lead.

Iowa maintained momentum in the second half after holding Florida to a three-and-out on its first possession. Matt Melloy blocked the Florida punt and also recovered it in the end zone for a touchdown. It marked the first time in Iowa bowl history that a Hawkeye player both blocked and recovered a punt for a touchdown.

The Gators added a field goal on their next possession, but two possessions later Iowa RB Fred Russell, who was named Outback Bowl MVP, scampered 34 yards for a touchdown to give Iowa a commanding 34-10 advantage. Kaeding added a 38-yard field goal to end Iowa's scoring.

Russell finished with 204 all-purpose yards. He carried the ball 21 times for 150 yards and one touchdown and returned three kickoffs for 54 yards. Chandler completed 13-25 passes for 170 yards, one passing touchdown, one rushing score and no interceptions. Brown caught six passes for 96 yards and one score.

Defensively, Iowa held the Gators to an Outback Bowl record-low 57 rushing yards, marking the eighth time in 2003 that the Hawkeyes held their opponents to 75 yards or less on the ground. DB Sean Considine collected a game-high nine tackles (three solo, six assists). LB Abdul Hodge registered eight stops (three solo, five assists). DT Tyler Luebke, DE Matt Roth and DE Howard Hodges each recorded one sack.

GAME RECAP

Fifth-year senior Warren Holloway caught an improbable 56-yard game-winning touchdown pass from QB Drew Tate as time expired to lift Iowa to a thrilling 30-25 triumph over 11th-ranked LSU in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. The 56-yard bomb on the final play was arguably the best finish in bowl history. The reception was Holloway's first career touchdown.

Iowa grabbed an early 7-0 lead when Tate connected with WR Clinton Solomon on a 57-yard score on its first possession. The 57-yarder tied Iowa's longest touchdown reception in a bowl game (Dave Moritz from Chuck Long in the 1982 Peach Bowl). LSU cut the Hawkeye lead to 7-6 on a pair of field goals midway through the second quarter. Iowa extended its lead to 14-6 when Miguel Merrick blocked a punt and Sean Considine returned the ball seven yards for a touchdown. The Tigers answered on their next possession with a 74-yard touchdown run, but failed to convert the extra point.

PK Kyle Schlischer scored the only points of the third quarter on a 19-yard field goal to stretch Iowa's lead to 17-12. RB Marques Simmons scored on a four-yard run with 12:48 remaining to give the Hawkeyes a 24-12 advantage. LSU rallied with a pair of touchdown passes to WR Skyler Green (22 and three yards) as the Tigers took their first lead of the game, 25-24, with 46 seconds left.

Tate drove Iowa to the 44-yard line before throwing the pass to Holloway as the final seconds clicked off the clock. The victory gave Iowa its 10th win of the year, marking the third straight season the Hawkeyes have collected 10 wins or more.

Tate was named the Capital One Bowl MVP, while DL Jonathan Babineaux was recognized as Iowa's Defensive MVP. Tate completed 20-32 passes for 287 yards and two touchdowns. The scoring passes of 56 and 57 yards marked the first time an Iowa quarterback has tossed two touchdowns over 50 yards in a bowl game.

WR Ed Hinkel caught a career and game-high 10 passes for 93 yards, one reception shy of an Iowa bowl record. Solomon caught four passes for 81 yards and one score, while Holloway caught four passes for 72 yards and one touchdown.

Defensively, Iowa recorded 10 tackles for loss, including five sacks. LB Abdul Hodge racked up a game-high 15 tackles (10 solo), including 2.5 sacks. LB Chad Greenway tallied nine tackles (seven solo), including one for loss. Babineaux registered seven tackles (five solo), including 4.5 for loss and 2.5 sacks. Additionally, the Hawkeyes' special teams blocked two punts, including returning one for a touchdown.

Iowa finished the season ranked eighth for the third consecutive year. The Hawkeyes finished in the top 10 three straight seasons for only the second time ever (1956-58).

GAME RECAP

Florida scored the game's first 17 points and held off a late Iowa surge to defeat the Hawkeyes 31-24 in the 2006 Outback Bowl at Tampa, FL. The Gators blocked and returned an Iowa punt for a score on Iowa's first possession to take a 7-0 advantage. Florida then added a 21-yard field goal and returned an interception 60 yards to take a 17-0 lead with 1:57 left in the first half.

Iowa scored its first points on a 20-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Tate to WR Clinton Solomon. However, the Gators answered the Hawkeye score with a touchdown with one second left in the period to take a 24-7 halftime advantage.

Florida added a 38-yard touchdown pass for the only score of the third quarter, but Iowa rallied to score 17 fourth-quarter points to make for an exciting finish. WR Ed Hinkel caught touchdown passes of four and 14 yards from Tate, while PK Kyle Schlicher converted a 45-yard field goal to cut the Florida lead to 34-21 with 1:24 left. Iowa's comeback fell short as the Hawkeyes failed to recover an onside kick. On the previous play, Iowa recovered the onside kick, only to be flagged for an offside penalty.

Tate completed 32-55 passes for 346 yards and three scores; the 32 pass completions and 55 attempts established Iowa bowl records. Hinkel caught a team-high nine passes for 87 yards and tied an Iowa bowl record with two touchdown receptions. Damian Sims tied an Iowa bowl record with five kickoff returns for 107 yards.

Florida QB Chris Leak completed 25-40 passes for 278 yards and two TDs. Leak's two touchdown passes went to Outback Bowl MVP, WR Dallas Baker, who caught 10 passes for 147 yards.

LB Abdul Hodge amassed an Outback Bowl and Iowa bowl record 19 tackles (14 solo) to lead the Hawkeye defense. DB Antwan Allen and DB Marcus Paschal each added 10 tackles, while LB Chad Greenway recorded nine stops. Allen became the first Iowa player to start in four January bowl games.

GAME RECAP

Texas outscored Iowa 23-10 in the final three periods en route to a 26-24 Alamo Bowl victory over the Hawkeyes in front of a bowl-record 65,875 fans in the Alamodome. Iowa sprinted out of the gates, scoring touchdowns on its first two possessions. RB Albert Young scored on a one-yard run and WR Andy Brodell caught a 63-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Tate. The 63-yard pass is the longest TD pass in Iowa bowl history.

After a Texas field goal, Iowa looked to stretch its lead to 21-3 on a nine-yard touchdown reception by TE Scott Chandler, but a flag negated the score. Texas intercepted a Tate pass in the end zone on the very next play. The Longhorns took advantage of Iowa's misfortune and turned the turnover in seven points. Iowa took a 14-10 lead into the half.

The Longhorns scored the next 10 points on a 43-yard field goal and a 72-yard touchdown pass to grab a 20-14 advantage midway through the third period. Iowa quickly answered with a four-play, 68-yard drive that culminated with a 23-yard touchdown reception by Brodell.

Texas responded with a touchdown on the following possession to go up 26-21. Iowa added a PK Kyle Schlicher 38-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter to cut the deficit to 26-24. The Longhorns became the first team to win the Alamo Bowl when trailing at the half.

Tate completed 15-25 passes for 274 yards and two touchdowns. Brodell tied an Iowa bowl record with two touchdown receptions and matched a career high with 159 receiving yards on six receptions. Furthermore, the 159 yards is an Alamo Bowl receiving record, besting Michigan's Amani Toomer's 135 yards set in 1995.

Texas QB Colt McCoy was named the Most Outstanding Offensive Player. McCoy completed 26-40 passes for 308 yards and two scores.

Four Hawkeyes recorded seven tackles or more. DB Miguel Merrick had a team-high eight tackles. DB Charles Godfrey and LB Ed Miles each were credited with seven stops.

GAME RECAP

Iowa forced five South Carolina turnovers and scored the game's first 31 points en route to a convincing 31-10 victory at the 2009 Outback Bowl in Raymond James Stadium at Tampa, FL. This game marked Iowa's third appearance in six years at the Outback Bowl. Iowa finished the season winning six of its last seven games and pushed its all-time bowl record to 12-10-1.

RB Shonn Greene was named the bowl's Most Valuable Player after rushing for 121 yards and three touchdowns on 29 carries. The 29 attempts, three rushing scores and 18 points are new Iowa bowl records. Greene finished his junior campaign with a school single-season record 20 rushing touchdowns and 1,850 rushing yards. Additionally, he rushed for over 100 yards in all 13 games, also an Iowa single-season record.

QB Ricky Stanzi completed 13-19 passes for 147 yards and a touchdown. He completed a six-yard touchdown to WR Trey Stross on Iowa's opening drive. Iowa's tight ends combined for seven receptions and 92 yards – Brandon Myers had four catches for 49 yards, while Tony Moeaki had three for 43 yards.

Iowa led 21-0 at halftime on two Greene one-yard runs and Stross' six-yard touchdown reception. PK Daniel Murray converted an 18-yard field goal and Greene scored his third touchdown from 11 yards out to stretch Iowa's cushion to 31-0. The Gamecocks scored the final 10 points on a 10-yard pass and a 48-yard field goal.

Defensively, Iowa collected three interceptions, which tied an Iowa bowl record, and recovered two fumbles. Four of the five South Carolina miscues came in the first 30 minutes. SS Tyler Sash tied an Outback Bowl and Iowa bowl record with two thefts. He returned the two interceptions 74 total yards, which is an Iowa bowl record. DB Bradley Fletcher recorded the other interception in the end zone and also forced a fumble. LB A. J. Edds recovered both South Carolina fumbles. LB Pat Angerer had six tackles and a sack and LB Jeremiha Hunter was credited with four tackles, including two for loss, and a pass break-up.

GAME RECAP

Iowa turned in another dominating defensive performance in defeating ninth-ranked Georgia Tech, 24-14, in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl. The Hawkeyes won their second straight January bowl game and evened their record at 1-1 in BCS games.

The Iowa defense limited Georgia Tech to 155 yards total offense, including just 12 passing yards. The Yellow Jackets entered the game ranked second in the nation in rushing offense. Georgia Tech was held to just 32 net yards on 20 offensive plays in the first half.

Iowa quarterback Ricky Stanzi, after missing the final two games of the regular season due to injury, completed his first eight pass attempts in leading the Hawkeyes to a 14-0 advantage in the first period. Stanzi connected with TE Tony Moeaki for a 54-yard gain to set up the first score of the game, a four-yard completion to WR Marvin McNutt.

Iowa added a second touchdown on its next possession, as Stanzi connected with WR Colin Sandeman on a 21-yard scoring play. Stanzi completed 17-29 passes for 231 yards and the two scores.

Georgia Tech used a pass interception return for its only points of the first half, leaving Iowa with a 14-7 advantage at the break. The Hawkeyes increased the advantage to 17-7 late in the third period on a 33-yard field goal by Daniel Murray.

After Tech narrowed the margin to 17-14 early in the final period, Iowa again turned to its defense. Senior LB A. J. Edds had a pass interception and the Iowa defense forced another Tech punt with 4:54 remaining. Freshman RB Brandon Wegher sealed the win with a 32-yard scoring run with 1:56 left to play.

Wegher ended the game with 113 rushing yards on 16 carries. Moeaki had 85 yards on four receptions, Sandeman had four receptions for a career-best 53 yards and Derrell Johnson-Koulianos had four receptions for 63 yards before leaving the game in the second quarter due to injury.

2010 Insight Bowl

Dec. 28, 2010, Sun Devil Stadium, Tempe, Ariz.

Missouri	3	7	14	0	24
Iowa	7	10	3	7	27

GAME RECAP

Iowa used record setting performances on both offense and defense to earn a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl. The win was the third straight bowl victory for the Hawkeyes and the fourth of the season (in eight games) against a nationally-ranked opponent.

Freshman RB Marcus Coker was the key player for the Iowa offense, rushing 33 times for 219 yards and two touchdowns. Both the rushing attempts and yards established Iowa bowl records.

Sophomore DB Micah Hyde scored the winning points with 5:32 remaining in the game on a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown. That set an Iowa bowl record and ranks as the eighth longest return in school history.

Following Hyde's touchdown, Missouri drove to the Iowa 46 on its next possession, but a pass attempt on fourth-and-six was incomplete and Iowa's offense maintained possession for the final 2:15. Iowa ended the game at the one-yard line as time expired.

Iowa won the toss and elected to start the game on offense. Coker gave the Hawkeyes an early 7-0 advantage with a one-yard scoring run to complete the opening drive. Missouri responded with a field goal on its first drive, but Coker added a 62-yard scoring run early in the second period to give Iowa a 14-3 advantage.

The Hawkeyes added a 34-yard Mike Meyer field goal later in the period before Missouri scored on a 10-yard run to cut Iowa's halftime advantage to 17-10. Brett Greenwood's interception in the end zone ended Missouri's final drive just before halftime.

Iowa's only offensive points of the second half came midway through the third period when Meyer added a 21-yard field goal for a 20-10 advantage, capping a 93-yard scoring drive. The Tigers cut the lead to 20-17 later in the third quarter and took their first advantage at 24-20 with under a minute left in the period.

Hyde's interception return, the fourth for the Hawkeyes in 13 games, was the only scoring in the final quarter.

Stanzi complemented Coker's rushing effort by completing 11-21 passes for 200 yards. Colin Sandeman (4-44) and Reisner (3-50) led Iowa's receivers.

The Iowa defense was led by Greenwood, who collected 11 tackles to go with his second quarter interception. DB Shaun Prater added nine tackles and LB James Morris had seven. DL Karl Klug and DL Christian Ballard each collected a QB sack.

Iowa in the Top 20

Since the wire services began running football polls, Iowa has finished the season ranked in the nation's Top Twenty-five 22 times. Iowa's 21 appearances in the final Associated Press poll ranks 25th among all Division I programs. The Hawkeyes were named national champions by the Football Writers Association in 1958. Selected researchers also credit Iowa with national titles in 1921, 1956 and 1960. Here are Iowa's Top Twenty-five finishes by the Associated Press, United Press International and the coaches poll.

The Heisman Trophy, honoring the most outstanding college football player in the United States, is presented by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York each year. Iowa's Nile Kinnick earned the Heisman Trophy in 1939.

Iowa's Nile Kinnick (1939) and Navy's Roger Staubach (1963) are the only veterans to win the Heisman Trophy. As part of its 2008 Memorial Day tribute to veterans, ESPN named Kinnick as one of its top ten college athletes to serve in the armed forces.

Along with Kinnick earning the award in 1939, Iowa has had a player finish in the Top 10 in the voting on nine other occasions, including the 2002 season when QB Brad Banks placed second in the balloting. Banks became the fourth Iowa player to place second in the voting, joining Alex Karras in 1957, Randy Duncan in 1958 and Chuck Long in 1985.

In 2008, RB Shonn Greene placed sixth in the voting and was the top vote getter among all running backs. Greene's sixth place finish is the highest for an Iowa running back. He was a consensus all-American and received the Doak Walker Award as the top running back in the nation.

Nile Kinnick Heisman Award Acceptance Speech

"Thank you very, very, kindly, Mr. Holcombe. It seems to me that everyone is letting their superlatives run away with them this evening, but none the less, I want you to know that I'm mighty, mighty, happy to accept this trophy this evening.

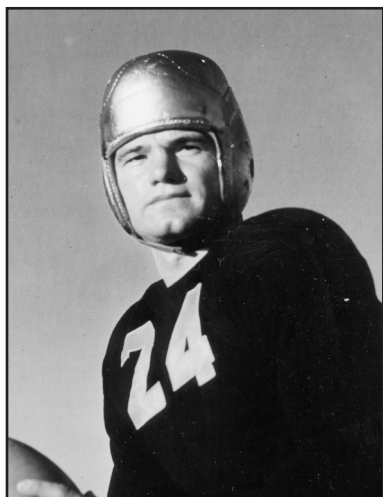

Every football player in these United States dreams about winning that trophy, and of this fine trip to New York. Every player considers that trophy the acme in recognition of this kind. And the fact that I am actually receiving this trophy tonight almost overwhelms me, and I know that all of those boys who have gone before me must have felt somewhat the same way.

From my own personal viewpoint, I consider my winning this award as indirectly, a great tribute to the new coaching staff at the University of Iowa, headed by Dr. Eddie Anderson, and to my teammates sitting back in Iowa City. A finer man and a better coach never hit these United States, and a more courageous bunch of boys, never graced the gridirons of the Midwest, than that Iowa team in 1939. I wish that they might all be with me tonight to receive this trophy. They certainly deserve it.

I want to take this grand opportunity to thank collectively, all the sportswriters and all the sportscasters, and all those who have seen fit, have seen their way clear to cast a ballot in my favor for this trophy. And I also want to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Prince and his committee, the Heisman award committee, and all those connected with the Downtown Athletic Club for this trophy, and for the fine time that they're showing me. And not only for that, but for making this fine and worthy trophy available to the football players of this country.

Finally, if you will permit me, I'd like to make a comment which in my mind, is indicative, perhaps, of the greater significance of football, and sports emphasis in general in this country, and that is, I thank God I was warring on the gridirons of the Midwest, and not on the battlefields of Europe. I can speak confidently and positively that the players of this country, would much more, much rather struggle and fight to win the Heisman award, than the Croix de Guerre.

Thank you."

Nile Kinnick
Halfback
Adel, Iowa

No single player or team captured the imagination of Hawkeye fans more than Nile Kinnick and his legendary Ironmen team of 1939. Kinnick, a stalwart on the playing field and in the classroom was THE model Iowa football player.

As a student, Kinnick was senior class president. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, the national scholastic honor society.

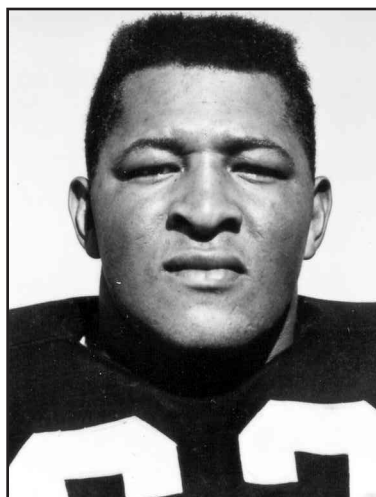

Maintaining a 3.4 GPA while participating in two sports, Kinnick earned a degree from the College of Commerce in 1940. He enrolled in the Iowa Law College.

As a player, his achievements are unmatched in Hawkeye history. He culminated a brilliant career in 1939 by winning the Heisman, Walter Camp and Maxwell Trophies as the nation's top player.

He made virtually every all-America team and was the Big Ten MVP. Nile is a member of Iowa's all-time football team and was named its outstanding player.

Kinnick was the spirit of Coach Eddie Anderson's Ironmen unit of '39. The Hawkeyes' 6-1-1 mark included a 7-6 upset of Notre Dame when Kinnick scored every point. He also punted 16 times for 731 yards, both Iowa records, versus the Fighting Irish.

Kinnick died in the Caribbean sea in a crash of his fighter plane while on a training flight June 2, 1943 as an ensign in the United States Navy.

Cal Jones
Lineman
Steubenville, Ohio

Jersey No. 62 was never worn more proudly than the three seasons Cal Jones donned it at Iowa.

One of the most intimidating linemen to wear the old gold and black, Jones was a three-time first team all-Big Ten guard. He made 22 all-American teams during his career, including a record 15 in 1954.

As team captain in 1955, Jones earned the prestigious Outland Trophy, given to the nation's top interior lineman. He was a consensus all-American twice, one of only two at Iowa. Cal is an elected member of the National Football Foundation and Helms Athletic Foundation Halls of Fame.

Jones most recently was inducted into the inaugural class of Iowa Lettermen's Club Hall of Fame. He was also chosen to the Iowa all-time football team in 1989.

A physical education major at Iowa, Jones earned a 3.0 grade-point average. He earned praise from Coach Forest Evashevski, who called him "the greatest lineman I ever coached."

The two-way guard was part of the "Steubenville Trio" (along with Frank Gilliam and Eddie Vincent) to come to Iowa from Steubenville, Ohio in the mid-1950s.

Jones died as a result of a plane crash in Canada on Dec. 9, 1956.

Throughout the years, a number of Iowa football players have been honored by winning national awards for their outstanding play on the football field. The individual awards earned by the 2002 and 2003 Hawkeye football program are unprecedented in the history of Iowa football as four individual earned national awards.

In 2008, running back Shonn Greene earned consensus all-America honors and was named the recipient of the Doak Walker Award, which goes each year to the top running back in the nation. Greene established an Iowa single season rushing record and was the only running back in the nation to gain over 100 yards in every game. Greene was also named the Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Ten Conference.

While Greene led the Iowa offense in 2008, tackle Mitch King was the leader of another standout Hawkeye defensive unit. King was named the 2008 Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year.

Offensive tackle Robert Gallery in 2003 was the recipient of the Outland Trophy, which goes to the best interior lineman in college football. Gallery was named the Big Ten Lineman of the Year and he was a consensus all-American. He is the third Hawkeye player to earn the Outland Trophy.

PK Nate Kaeding earned the Lou Groza Award as the top kicker in the nation in 2002 as a junior. He also earned consensus all-America honors in 2003 and was one of three finalists for the Groza Award as a senior.

Also in 2002, Dallas Clark earned the John Mackey Award as the top tight end in the nation and QB Brad Banks was recognized with the Davey O'Brien Award as the top signal caller in the nation.

Following the 2007 season, linebacker Mike Klinkenborg was named a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, earning an $18,000 post-graduate scholarship. A two-time first team academic all-American, Klinkenborg was also a finalist for the Draddy Award.

Along with having three players earn Player of the Year awards for their positions (QB Brad Banks, TE Dallas Clark and PK Nate Kaeding) in 2002, Iowa had a total of 11 players earn first team all-Big Ten honors. In addition to earning the Davey O'Brien Award as the top quarterback, Banks was named Associated Press National Player of the Year, placed second in the Heisman Trophy voting and was named the Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Ten Conference. Banks was also a finalist for the Maxwell Award and the Walter Camp Foundation Player of the Year.

Center Bruce Nelson in 2002 was a finalist for the Rimington Award, which goes to the top center in the nation, while Clark and OL Eric Steinbach earned consensus all-America honors. The 2002 and 2003 seasons marked just the third and fourth seasons in which Iowa has had more than one consensus selection. Steinbach, in 2002, preceded Gallery as the Big Ten Lineman of the Year.

In addition to the player honors, Coach Kirk Ferentz in 2002 was named national Coach of The Year by the Walter Camp Foundation and the Associated Press. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) selected Ron Aiken as the 2002 national Assistant Coach of the Year.

Iowa football has been a popular choice for football fans, as Iowa's attendance figures would indicate. But the Hawkeyes have also been a favorite for television viewers as well, as nearly all of Iowa's football games in recent seasons have been selected for television. Iowa football games were televised on five different networks four out of the last five seasons (2008, 2009, 2011, 2012). All Iowa games over the past 11 seasons have been televised, with 99 games being carried to a national audience. All 12 of Iowa's regular season games during the 2013 season will again be televised. The Hawkeyes have a 183-127-5 overall television record, and during one stretch (1955 to 1959) went 10 games without a defeat.

Floyd of Rosedale - Iowa vs. Minnesota

To the winner of the Iowa-Minnesota football game goes possession of a statue of a pig named "Floyd of Rosedale."

A bet in 1935 between Minnesota Governor Floyd B. Olson and Iowa Governor Clyde Herring gave birth to Floyd of Rosedale. Tensions between the two state universities had been running high and a wager was made in an effort to relieve the situation.

After Iowa lost the 1935 game, Herring presented Olson with Floyd of Rosedale, a full-blooded champion pig and a brother of BlueBoy from Will Rogers' movie State Fair. Olson gave the pig to the University of Minnesota and commissioned St. Paul sculptor Charles Brioscho to capture Floyd's image.

The result is a bronze pig 21 inches long and 15 inches high and weighs in at 98.3 pounds. Floyd currently resides in Iowa City as a result of Iowa's 31-13 victory last season at Kinnick Stadium. Minnesota holds a 41-35-2 advantage in the series with Floyd of Rosedale on the line. The winning university is entitled to keep the trophy until it loses the annual battle.

Cy-Hawk Trophy - Iowa vs. Iowa State

When The University of Iowa resumed its football series with Iowa State in 1977, the Des Moines Athletic Club donated a trophy to be awarded to the winner of the annual in-state battle.

The original Cy-Hawk Trophy featured a football player in the classic running back pose and a likeness of both Herky the Hawkeye and Cy the Cardinal. A new Cy-Hawk Trophy, which is a part of the Iowa Corn Cy-Hawk Series, was selected in 2012 through a fan vote. The trophy features each school's mascots - Herky and Cy - holding up a football in front of a field of corn.

The Hawkeyes hold a 39-22 advantage in the series that began in 1894, including a 23-12 margin since 1977 when the Cy-Hawk Trophy was first awarded. Iowa State currently has possession of the Cy-Hawk Trophy with a 9-6 victory last season in Iowa City. The winning university is entitled to keep the trophy until it loses the annual battle.

Heartland Trophy - Iowa vs. Wisconsin

The Heartland Trophy was inaugurated in 2004 and goes each year to the winner of the football battle between Iowa and Wisconsin.

The trophy was designed and crafted by artist and former Iowa football player Frank Strub. The trophy, which is a bull mounted on a walnut base (native to both Wisconsin and Iowa), has been inscribed with the scores of all games in the long-time series. The teams have met 86 times, with the series dead even at 42-42-2.

Iowa holds a 4-3 advantage since the inception of the Heartland Trophy in 2004. Wisconsin gained possession of the Heartland Trophy with a 31-30 win in Iowa City in 2010. The winning university is entitled to keep the trophy until it loses the annual battle.

The Heroes Game - Iowa vs. Nebraska

The Heroes Game was created to highlight the border rivalry between Iowa and Nebraska. The institutions annually honor one citizen from each of their respective states who are admired for their brave deeds and noble qualities. These heroes are nominated by friends, neighbors or co-workers and will be guests of the two teams at the game where they will be honored on-field. Each will also have their name and hometown etched on the Heroes Trophy. Nebraska holds a 28-12-3 advantage in the all-time series, and the trophy resides in Lincoln after Nebraska's 13-7 victory in 2012.

Herky and the Hawkeyes

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago.

The name Hawkeye was originally applied to a hero in a fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Author Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawk-Eye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawk, was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism.

The impish hawk was an immediate hit and he acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth over 60 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since then Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletic events.

Kinnick Stadium, home for the Iowa football team, is in its 84th season of hosting Hawkeye football games. One of the 25 largest college-owned stadiums in the nation and one of college football's finest facilities, Kinnick Stadium is routinely filled on Saturdays each fall.

A two-year, $90 million restoration and renovation project for the stadium was completed prior to the start of the 2006 season. The project, which was the largest such undertaking ever for Iowa athletics, includes an entirely new south end zone and a new press and hospitality facility. The end zone project, which included new locker rooms, training room and media facilities for the Hawkeye football team on game days, was completed prior to the 2005 season. The Paul J. Brechler Press Box, a completely new four-level press and hospitality facility, opened for the 2006 season. The facility extends the full length of the west side of the stadium. It includes 47 private viewing suites and over 1,000 club seats.

The renovation also provides a new entry plaza to the south entrance, wider seats throughout most of the stadium, new and upgraded restroom facilities and concession areas and an upgraded sound system. It also raised the official capacity of Kinnick Stadium to 70,585.

Iowa draws sellout crowds for a majority of all home games, including 62 of the last 65 games over the last 11 seasons. Iowa had a sellout streak of 36 snapped in its 2008 home finale vs. Purdue (Nov. 15, 2008).

The Hawkeyes annually rank among the top 25 schools in the nation in home attendance. Iowa ranked 21st in home attendance in 2012 with its average of 70,474. Big Ten Conference football games in 2012 drew over six million fans for the first time ever. The Big Ten annually ranks first or second nationally in home attendance. Conference games a year ago averaged over 70,040 fans per contest.

Construction on the original 53,000-seat stadium was completed Oct. 5, 1929, at a cost of $497,151. 42. Original construction took six months, but it has undergone several facelifts since. Seats were added to the south end zone in 1956, raising the capacity to 60,000. The north end zone was enclosed and capacity increased to 66,000 prior to the 1983 season. With three more expansion projects completed since, Kinnick now seats 70,585. Kinnick Stadium has 20 miles of bleacher seats and is 79 rows high on each side.

Beside the expansions, an artificial surface was installed in 1972. That carpet was replaced in 1981. Prior to the 1989 season a natural grass playing field, Prescription Athletic Turf, was installed. The playing surface was replaced with new sod prior to the 1997 season and during the 2005 season.

The playing surface was replaced prior to the 2009 season, this time with state-of-the-art Field Turf. Permanent practice lights were installed prior to the 2012 season.

The original five-floor press box was constructed in 1958 at a cost of $490,628. 62, and was located between the 25-yard lines on the west side of the stadium. Between 1995 and 1999, the Kinnick Stadium press box underwent a $3 million improvement and renovation project, which included the addition of 18 private viewing suites and the remodeling of all five levels. The original press box was demolished in December, 2005.

Spectators attending home games of the Iowa Hawkeyes enjoy all the benefits of watching a game on television, thanks to the installation of all new and expanded video boards and scoreboards for 2013. The $9 million upgrade includes large scale, HD video display units, which offer spectators live game action, instant replays and other features. In addition to the expanded main board in the south end zone, two additional video boards and a video ribbon were added to the south end zone this summer.

Kinnick Stadium has a rich history, beginning with a 46-0 Hawkeye win over Monmouth in the facility's first game. The Hawkeyes tied Illinois 7-7 in the dedication game Oct. 19, 1929.

In 1972, the name was changed from Iowa Stadium to Kinnick Stadium in honor of Iowa's 1939 Heisman Trophy winner, Nile Kinnick. His No. 24 jersey was retired by the school because of his success as a scholar-athlete at the University.

Iowa's all-time record in Kinnick Stadium is 261-171-15. Iowa's longest home winning streak of 22 games spanned the 2002 to 2005 seasons. The Hawkeyes have had 11 undefeated home seasons, including both 2003 and 2004. Iowa posted a 5-2 home record in 2010, 4-2 mark in 2007, 4-3 mark in 2006, 5-1 mark in 2005 and 6-1 records in 2002, 2008, 2009 and 2011.

The school's all-time home total attendance record was set in 2006 (494,095 fans) and matched in both 2010 and 2011. The average per game record (70,585) was established in 2005 and matched in 2006, 2007, 2010 and 2011. Iowa's record season attendance mark for all games is 905,840 set in 1990, a 75,487 per game average.

The Iowa Hawkeyes play their home football games in Kinnick Stadium (capacity 70,585), located on the west campus in the heart of the University's athletic complex. It is a few minutes drive from Interstate 80 and 380 and is less than 30 minutes from the Eastern Iowa Airport in Cedar Rapids.

The Paul J. Brechler Press Box at Kinnick is on the west side and accessible by elevator or stairs. The facility is named in honor of the former UI athletic director (1947-60). It was completed prior to the 2006 season as part of the two-year, $90 million renovation of Kinnick Stadium.

The four-level facility extends from goal line to goal line. The media section, including the press section, radio and television booths and game management operations, are located on the fourth level. Level one includes private suites and indoor club seating, level two includes outdoor club seating and level three is private suites.

Refreshments and snacks are available throughout each game. A pregame meal is served for the media, as well as sandwiches postgame.

Ferentz Conferences/Interview Requests

Coach Kirk Ferentz holds a media conference each Tuesday at 12:45 p. m. in the player's auditorium during the football season. Players are also available, upon request, at 1:15 p. m. following the media conference.

Player requests must be made following each game, either after a Saturday game or by 9 a. m. CT Sunday morning, for the following week. Out of town media should contact the Athletic Communications office on Mondays to arrange telephone interviews.

Coach Ferentz is available each Tuesday during the Big Ten Conference coaches tele-conference (11:40 a. m. , CT), and, he is also available via tele-conference for visiting media outlets. Those tele-conferences are held each Tuesday at noon. Contact UI Athletic Communications for tele-conference phone number and details.

Credentials

Season and single-game credential requests for Iowa football may be requested online. Please contact Theresa Walenta (theresa-walenta@uiowa.edu) for instructions. Season requests must be received by August 15 to assure a season seat in the press box.

Once a credential request is submitted, you will receive an automatic reply stating that your request has been received. You will receive another notification when your request has been approved or denied. Credentials will be mailed if the request is received 10 days prior to a game. Credentials may also be picked up in the Athletic Communications office on the Friday prior to game day or left at the media will call gate (Gate I) at Kinnick Stadium on game day.

Reporters may not use a credential to cover the game for another newspaper, TV station, radio station or internet site. Failure to comply will result in both agencies credentials being revoked for the entire season.

Credential language, which appears on all credentials issued for Iowa football, is printed on the following page of this guide. All rules and regulations listed are enforced by the University of Iowa Athletics Department and the Big Ten Conference.

Parking

Requests for parking should be made when requesting credentials online. Media parking is located in the parking ramp at the northeast corner of Kinnick Stadium, at the corner of Hawkins Drive and Evashevski Drive.

Television stations needing satellite truck parking must contact Theresa Walenta (319-335-9411) to make arrangements.

Media Entrance

Members of the media are encouraged to enter Kinnick Stadium at the northeast corner of the stadium (Gate I, immediately across from the parking ramp) and proceed through the north and west concourses to elevator F, located at the midway point of the west stands. Media members may also enter through Gate F on the west side of Kinnick Stadium.

Photo credentials must be requested following the same guidelines as mentioned above. A photographer's room is located at the northwest corner of Kinnick Stadium. Photo credentials must be presented in order to receive an armband and vest for sideline photography. Entrance to the photo room is through the tunnel in the middle of the west concourse. From the playing field, the photo room may be accessed through the tunnel at the northwest corner of the field.

Television stations are not allowed to video tape from the press box. A splitter board is available in the photo room for all TV stations to receive the overhead video provided by Iowa's football video department (or the network midfield camera). TV camera personnel on the sidelines must adhere to all sideline policies.

Services

Complete play-by-play, halftime statistics, final team and individual stats, complete defensive stats, drive charts, participation charts and quotes from both head coaches are available following each home game. The Kinnick Stadium press facility closes four hours following each home game.

Telephones

Iowa provides a limited number of telephones in the main press box area for use on a first-come, first-serve basis. Media requiring their own phone lines should call 319-335-2945 and ask for a work order clerk.

High Speed Internet Access

Hard wire high speed internet access is available at every media seat in the Kinnick Stadium press box. Wireless internet access is available, with a username and password, in the postgame interview rooms.

Postgame Information via E-Mail

All game statistics, notes and quotes will be e-mailed from Kinnick Stadium following Iowa home games when requested. This information is filed in pdf format and is sent within 30-45 minutes following home games. To receive this information, contact a member of the Iowa Athletic Communications staff. This information is also posted on the Iowa website, hawkeyesports.com, following each Iowa game throughout the season.

Press Conference Transcripts

Transcripts of Tuesday press conferences and home game postgame press conferences with Coach Kirk Ferentz, are provided by ASAP Transcripts. Transcripts of Ferentz press conferences are available for download via hawkeyesports.com and e-mail. Hard copy transcripts of press conferences following home games are also distributed to members of the media.

Accommodations

A directory of hotels, motels, restaurants and available air transportation can be found on page 205 of this guide. The UI Athletic Communications office does reserve a block of rooms at the Holiday Inn and Conference Center in Coralville, and those are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Contact Theresa Walenta in the UI Athletic Communications office (319-335-9411) for reservations.

Postgame Interviews

Members of the media should contact Steve Roe with player requests prior to leaving the press box. UI Athletic Communications staff will be departing the press box with approximately five minutes remaining in the game.

Both team locker room facilities are located beneath the south end zone stands. All player and coaches interviews will take place in the designated media rooms. You may follow a member of the UI Athletic Communications staff from the press box or ask for directions on getting to the postgame media rooms.

Both head coaches are available (in different interview rooms) following the cooling off period, with player interviews to follow. Coach Ferentz' postgame comments are televised on the monitors throughout the Kinnick Stadium press box. Quotes from both head coaches are distributed following the interview sessions.

The Iowa locker room is closed to the media. Requested Iowa players are available in the interview area, and quotes from selected Iowa players are also distributed following the interview sessions.

The Hawkeye Radio Network

Fans of the University of Iowa following the Hawkeyes on radio can tune in on their favorite station throughout the state of Iowa and the Midwest.

The radio voice of the Hawkeyes is Gary Dolphin, a Cascade, Iowa native who handles all play-by-play action of both Iowa football and men's basketball. In addition, Dolphin also serves as the host of the weekly coach's shows during the season with football Coach Kirk Ferentz and men's basketball Coach Fran McCaffery. Dolphin is a three-time Iowa Sportscaster of the Year. He is in his 17th year of broadcasting Iowa football and basketball on the Hawkeye Radio Network. Dolphin, overall, is in his 41st year of play-by-play broadcasting, which includes six years of broadcasting basketball games for Northwestern University. He served as the Network Television Coordinator for the Chicago Bears from 1989-99.

Dolphin is joined on all University of Iowa football broadcasts by former Hawkeye and NFL great Ed Podolak. A native of Atlantic, Iowa, Podolak was a three-year letterman for the Hawkeyes (1966-68) as a quarterback and running back. He enjoyed a lengthy professional career with the Kansas City Chiefs and is a member of the Chiefs Hall of Fame. He has been a part of Iowa football broadcasts for 31 years. Iowa's sideline reporter is Rob Brooks, son of Hall of Fame broadcaster, Bob Brooks.

The Hawkeye Radio Network, a production of Learfield Communications, Inc. of Jefferson City, Mo., blankets the state of Iowa and bordering states with more than 50 stations providing live coverage. The Hawkeyes can also be heard on the World Wide Web (hawkeyesports.com) via Hawkeye All-Access, and on satellite radio.

Honoring Legends. Building Leaders.

Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and attainment of academic excellence has been a priority for every Big Ten member institution. But maintaining the conference's status as one of the preeminent athletic conferences in the country also endures as an important component of the Big Ten student-athlete experience. Striking that balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity, and the Big Ten's "Honoring Legends. Building Leaders." campaign links directly to the Big Ten mission. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its student-athletes not only on the field and in the classroom, but around the world as well.

PREMIER ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

All Big Ten universities have been granted Tier One Status by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, a distinction awarded to just over 100 universities.

Big Ten schools have produced more than 1,450 Academic All-Americans, more than any other conference, including 46 in the last academic year.

For the 2011 fiscal year, the Big Ten led all conferences with over $8 billion in research expenditures, more than $2 billion more than any other conference.

A HISTORY OF ATHLETIC SUCCESS

During the 2012-13 season, Big Ten institutions claimed seven national championships: Indiana men's soccer; Michigan men's gymnastics; Michigan men's swimming and diving; Minnesota women's ice hockey; Nebraska women's bowling; Ohio State women's rowing; and Penn State wrestling.

Over the last 10 years, the Big Ten is tied for the conference lead with national titles in 14 different NCAA-sponsored championships, including bowling, cross country, fencing, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, track and field, volleyball and wrestling.

BROAD-BASED PROGRAMMING

Almost 1,400 Big Ten student-athletes and coaches have participated in the Olympics, winning at least 460 medals, including nearly 250 gold.

Big Ten universities provide over $141 million in direct financial aid to more than 8,200 student-athletes playing on more than 300 teams in 42 different sports.

The Big Ten sponsors 26 official conference sports, 13 for men and 13 for women, including the debut of men's ice hockey as an official conference sport this academic year.

In 2014-15, men's and women's lacrosse will be added as the conference's 27th and 28th official sports, giving the Big Ten more official sports than all conferences other than the Ivy League.

PASSIONATE FOLLOWING

The Big Ten leads all conferences with nearly five million alumni and more than 460,000 students.

Big Ten fans are some of the nation's most supportive, with nearly 9.8 million patrons attending conference home contests during the 2012-13 seasons for football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball alone.

LEADERS IN INNOVATION

First awarded the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, honoring outstanding senior student-athletes who demonstrate excellence in academics and athletics. The conference will award its 100th Medal of Honor in May 2014.

The Big Ten Advisory Commission was formed in 1972. It enlists former student-athletes to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

The Big Ten became the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

The Big Ten implemented the first collegiate football system of instant replay in 2004, which the NCAA approved for use among all conferences in 2006.

In 2012, the Big Ten partnered with the Ivy League to study the effects of head injuries in sports.

In June 2013, Johns Hopkins University was accepted as the conference's first sport affiliate member, allowing the debut of men's lacrosse as an official conference sport in 2014-15.

EXTENSIVE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

Through the Big Ten's media agreements with CBS Sports, ABC/ESPN, FOX and the Big Ten Network (BTN), nearly 1,000 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally on an annual basis.

In 2006, the Big Ten created BTN, the first national conference-owned television network. With more than 53 million subscribers in the U.S. and Canada – and more outside the Big Ten region than inside – BTN allows fans to see their teams compete regardless of where they live.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

For the last 24 years, through the Big Ten's SCORE (Success Comes Out of Reading Everyday) program, the conference has partnered with Chicago elementary schools to improve reading performance.

Surrounding the Big Ten Football Championship Game and Big Ten Basketball Tournaments, the conference holds numerous community initiatives, such as the Big Ten Career Expo, SaturDAY of Service, Officiating and Youth Football Clinics and various fund-raising efforts, including the Think Pink promotions benefitting the Pink Ribbon Connection at previous women's basketball tournaments.
